Judge Carswell Swears He Harbors No Racism

Denies Any Golf Club Tie

WASHINGTON (AP) — Judge G. Harrold Carswell of Tallahassee, Fla., swore today at a hearing on his nomination to be a Supreme Court justice that "I have no notions, secretive, open or otherwise, of racial superiority."

"I am not a racist," he told the Senate Judiciary Committee in repudiating anew a white supremacy speech he made 22 years ago as a candidate for the Georgia legislature.

Carswell also testified that he had never been an officer nor director nor had anything to do with the incorporation of a country club in Tallahassee that had taken over a municipal golf course after a 1955 Supreme Court ruling that municipal recreation facilities must be desegregated.

REPLY TO REPORT

This was in reply to published reports that he was a director of the Capital City Country Club that acquired the course a few months after the court's ruling and that operated on a racially segregated basis.

However, Carswell said that sometime in 1956 at the request of a friend he had agreed to subscribe $100 for the repair of what he referred to as a wooden country club. He said $75 of this was refunded to him in February of 1957 and that he was not even a member of the club.

The questions about the country club and the white supremacy speech Carswell made in 1948 were put by Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Neb., the top ranking GOP member of the Judiciary Committee soon after Carswell was sworn as a witness by Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss.

JUDGE 'AGHAST'

Carswell told the committee that when the speech was brought to his attention he was "aghast that I had made such a

DUMPS HEW, LABOR FUNDS

Nixon Uses TV Time To Veto $19.7 Billion Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon formally told Congress today he vetoed a $19.7 billion Health-Education-Labor appropriation bill because it would feed inflation, foster inefficiency and misdirect money.

Congress boosted the bill nearly $1.3 billion beyond the level Nixon had recommended, and the President signed his veto message with a pen flourish televised to the nation Monday night.

Then today he sent the bill back to Capitol Hill along with the lengthy message amplifying his reasons for rejecting it.

Democratic leaders were pushing to override the veto, and some were claiming hopefully they had the votes to do it, but those claims were disputed.

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., said Republicans in the House, or if necessary in the Senate, will side with Nixon in numbers sufficient to sustain the veto, although he conceded some Democratic support would be needed.

The House will vote Wednesday. If it votes to override, then the Senate will act later. No time for a possible Senate vote has yet been set, but Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana predicted the Senate will vote to override the veto if it gets the chance.

Nixon offered little in the way of compromise to gain additional support.

Some legislators had expected him to give a bit on his opposition to a $600 million item for grants to schools in areas where large numbers of children of federal employes and servicemen attend them. The figure was nearly $400 million more than the administration had recommended.

Nixon promised only to study the program and make recommendations later.

"The issue," the President said during the 11-minute speech, "is not whether some of

New Troops Pullout Led By Marines

SAIGON (AP) — The withdrawal of 50,000 more American troops from Vietnam will begin Wednesday, the U.S. Command said today, with the departure from Da Nang of some Marine aviators and fighter-bombers. By Sunday, 3,000 Marines from 19 different units will be gone.

The third round of withdrawals ordered by President Nixon is scheduled to be completed by April 15 and will reduce the ceiling on U.S. troop strength in Vietnam to 434,000 men.

The main units being withdrawn this week are Fighter Attack Squadron 542 and Attack Squadron 223. They will go to the Marine Air Base at El Toro, Calif. Heavy Helicopter Squadron 361 is being returned to Santa Ana, Calif., and the 3rd Amphibious Track Vehicle Battalion to Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The rest of the Marines will go to Camp Pendleton, and 11 of their units will be deactivated.

There was no word on when the major combat units in the withdrawal—the 1st Infantry Division, the 26th Marine Regiment and the 3rd Brigade of the 4th Infantry Division—would begin pulling out. They probably will remain until after the festival of lunar new year, Feb. 6-8, so they will be available if enemy attacks increase as expected during the holiday period.

Viet Cong troops pulled off a bold ambush Monday night against an American supply convoy only seven miles east of Saigon. The attack occurred on Highway 1A leading from the capital to the U.S. Army's logistics base at Long Binh, 15 miles to the northeast. It is probably the busiest highway in South Vietnam, and it was the first ambush on it in a year.

The only casualty was one Vietnamese civilian wounded. A commercial truck was destroyed, and the U.S. Command said there was light damage to U.S. military jeeps.

As evidence that enemy troops are stockpiling arms and ammunition for a new offensive, allied headquarters reported capture of three large caches, two north of Saigon and the third in the central highlands. They contained a total of 147 rifles, eight heavy weapons, more than 600 rockets and grenades and more than 10,000 rounds of small arms ammunition.

WINDOW ESCAPE

Youth Grabs Infant From House Inferno

A 4-month-old girl was saved last night by a 19-year-old Corte Madera youth who braved intense flames to snatch the child from her bedroom.

Saved was Breanna Orcth, daughter of Quen Mikklesen a houseguest in the Paul Boucher home at 151 Summit Drive.

Hero of the fire was Boucher's son Michael, who was awakened along with the other residents at 11 p.m. as flames enveloped the front of the small hillside cottage.

Unable to enter the sleeping child's bedroom through an outside window, he rushed back into the house, through the burning room and snatched the child from danger. He then exited the house through the same burning room, getting hands and arms cut en route.

Michael was treated for cuts at Kaiser Hospital and released. No others were injured.

Asst. Fire Chief Lee Larson estimated the damage at $8,000. The fire gutted the front room, attic and roof. Other areas of the house received smoke damage. Cause of the fire is unknown, but under investigation.

Marin Spokesmen Attack Greyhound Rate Increase

By PAUL E. PETERZELL

SAN FRANCISCO — Greyhound Lines West, seeking an immediate hike in the price of coupon books sold to Marin commuters, came under heavy fire yesterday in what was to have been a routine hearing before the California Public Utilities Commission.

Greyhound's application, triggered last month by a hike in Golden Gate Bridge tolls, initially asked a $1 hike in the price of the 20-ride books. But yesterday the company's general counsel, William L. McCracken, said "refined data" had found a 95-cent hike would cover Greyhound's annual cost of $91,987 for the bridge toll hike from 26 cents to $2 per round trip.

Marin County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney and the bridge district's special counsel, William M. Bennett of Kent Woodlands, concentrated their attack on the Greyhound's application had not shown it was suffering a loss on its Marin commute operation.

Without proof of Greyhound's contention that it was losing money, the PUC could not know how to rule on the application, they argued. Maloney's motion to dismiss the application was taken under submission by PUC examiner John W. Mallory, who said he would refer it to the full commission because he had no power to rule on it.

Mallory rejected Bennett's argument that the entire corporate structure of Greyhound and its related companies had to be examined to determine whether the Marin hike was justified.

Bennett had argued that Greyhound Lines West was the wholly-owned subsidiary of "a prosperous money-making corporation, but Mallory cited past PUC decisions that commuter fares be determined by "out of pocket expenses" of commuter service.

Mallory also suggested that there was little doubt that Greyhound was suffering a loss on its Marin commute operation, since this fact was established by the commission last July for the year ending June 1970. (The projection in July by the PUC staff, showed a loss for the year of about $119,000.)

The PUC's associate counsel, Sergius M. Boikan, presented

Sausalito Trustees Subpoenaed

Trustees of the Sausalito School District were to appear today before the Marin County Grand Jury, apparently to answer questions about district operations.

The five members of the board Nathaniel Johnson, David E. Freedheim, Martha Freebairn-Smith, James E. Muldoon and C. Gerald Clear received the subpoenas at their homes Friday.

Supt. Philip W. Schneider declined to comment about the appearance, but Freedheim, the board's vice chairman, called the subpoenas "an additional method of bringing harassment and pressure to bear on the trustees in their efforts to bring about a better integrated educational program for Sausalito."

He said the district has been under investigation by the grand jury since March of 1969 and had cooperated fully with the investigative body.

Except for a "curt" note from the jurors telling the board all grand jury investigations were secret, Freedheim said the trustees received no communication from the panel.

There have been published reports that the grand jury's education committee would return a report critical of the district's operations "within a week."

Clearing Skies Are Forecast For Tomorrow

A fast-moving, short-lived storm dumped up to 1.41 inches of rain on Marin last night but moved out in time for a bright sunrise today, and forecasters said fair weather will hold through tomorrow.

San Rafael received 1.04 inches of rain in the 24 hours ending at noon today.

Woodacre reported 1.41 inches of rain in the 24 hours ending at 8 a.m. Other rainfall figures were 1.16 in Ross, .9 in Fairfax, .96 in Chevy Chase, Larkspur, .8 in Terra Linda, .79 in Sausalito, .76 in Tamalpais Valley, .74 in Mill Valley, .67 in San Anselmo, .62 in Santa Venetia, .58 in Petaluma, and .35 in Novato.

No damage was reported in Marin. Near Ukiah, a private plane with two persons aboard was reported missing in the storm and at Sacramento rivers were near flood warning stage from runoff from the Sierra and the new rainfall.

Marinite In New Mexico Court On Pot

I-J Special Report

LAS VEGAS, N.M.—Francisco Paco Grande, 27, of Mill Valley, was arraigned here yesterday in Magistrate Court on a charge of possessing 1,400 pounds of marijuana found Sunday hidden near an abandoned wrecked aircraft at Las Vegas airport.

Paco Grande's bail was set at $100,000. A warrant also was issued for Ulrich Georke, 30, of Berkeley, accusing him of conspiracy to possess marijuana for sale.

The marijuana was found in taped boxes hidden near a twin-engine plane which landed wheels-up at Las Vegas early Sunday. Another cache was found in a suitcase stuffed in a wastebasket at the airport terminal building.

Police estimated the street sale value of the marijuana at $1 million.

The airplane was rented from Peninsula Aviation of San Carlos, Federal narcotics agents reportedly are investigating the possibility of a conspiracy to import the marijuana into the country.

Paco Grande was arrested by Las Vegas police Sunday at a telegraph office. State Police Sgt. James Clayton said he had noticed Paco Grande hitchhiking, and when he learned about the marijuana he asked city police to arrest him.

Flames Gnaw Downtown Of Old Sonora

SONORA (UPI)—Fire roared uncontrolled through the downtown of this historic Gold Country town for more than four hours early today, destroying 13 businesses and causing an estimated $2 million damage.

One fireman was hospitalized because of smoke inhalation.

The fire was believed to have started in the kitchen of the Wagon Wheel restaurant-bar around 2:15 a.m. PST and quickly spread through the entire block.

Only a rainstorm which started about two hours after the fire broke out prevented a much worse disaster, for much of Sonora's downtown merchants are in century-old wooden buildings and sparks could have ignited them, too.

One of the gutted stores, Central Drugs, had stood in the same spot for over a century. Another firm destroyed was Kelly Motors, which operated in what was formerly a livery stable in the days when prospectors sought their fortune in nearby hills.

Congress Eying Bill For Clean Air Profit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Trials with a natural gas auto fuel have been so successful in eliminating pollution that plans are under way to convert as many as 1,000 government cars to the new system by the end of the year, Congress was told today.

In testimony prepared for a Senate commerce environmental subcommittee hearing, General Services Administration head Robert L. Kunzig said 12 cars already use the new, low-emission fuel with 70 more to be converted in the next two months.

"I emphasize to the committee that I hope to do this at little or no cost to the federal government," Kunzig's statement said.

The subcommittee, headed by Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., is considering a bill providing government purchase only of those automobiles certified as giving off the lowest possible pollution.

The initial GSA experiment was begun last October at a government motor pool in Los Angeles.

Kunzig said 24 autos were used in all, 12 operated with a natural gas converter, and 12 similar vehicles operated on regular gasoline for comparison.

A GSA spokesman told a newsman the converters cost $340 per vehicle to install and take about four hours to attach.

He said the GSA had discovered the natural gas cars, actually get about 50 per cent better mileage than orthodox powered cars.

The natural gas autos, however, require two tanks of fuel to go 52 miles.

Describing the bill before the subcommittee, Hart said the proposal was "innovative because it does not depend upon regulatory restraint."

"Rather," Hart said, "it utilizes economic incentive to stimulate changes which will benefit the environment. It will succeed, if it succeeds, by rewarding the most resourceful and responsible manufacturer, rather than by penalizing the hindmost."

The GSA as custodian of most government buildings and the government's chief purchasing agent operates more than 51,000 vehicles in 97 motor pools across the country.

Opposition Forms Against Carswell

WASHINGTON (AP) — The labor-civil rights alliance that helped defeat President Nixon's last Supreme Court nomination has joined again to oppose his appointment of Judge G. Harrold Carswell to the high court.

AFL-CIO President George Meany, speaking out on the eve of today's opening of Senate hearings on the nomination, said Carswell "does not meet the high standards requisite for Supreme Court membership."

Sen. William Proxmire also fired a broadside at the 50-year-old judge in a speech prepared for delivery to the Senate today. The Wisconsin Democrat said Carswell was a judge whose credentials "are distinguished by their mediocrity."

Civil rights groups already were on record with strong opposition to Carswell. They fought his nomination when he was elevated to the 5th U.S. Court of Appeals last June.

Critics of the nomination were armed with the disclosures that Carswell gave a political speech in 1948 pledging life-long devotion to white supremacy and that while U.S. attorney for northern Florida he served as a director of a segregated country club.

The Washington Post said in today's editions Carswell was a founder of a group that took over the previously municipal Tallahassee golf course on a $1 a year lease and made it a private, all-white club. The action was less than six months after the U.S. Supreme Court ruled in 1955 municipal recreation facilities must desegregate.

Civil rights leaders released copies of a deed transferring the golf course to Tallahasse Country Club and then to a new group, Capital City Country Club. They said Carswell was listed as a director.

Negroes in Tallahassee said that after the transfer, the club refused to let them use the course, the newspaper said. Carswell's name has not appeared as a director in recent filings with the state.

As the battlelines were forming, the American Bar Association came out in support of Carswell. Lawrence E. Walsh, chairman of the bar's Committee on the Federal Judiciary, said its members were unanimous in the opinion the nominee is qualified to serve on the court.

Carswell, who made traditional get-acquainted calls Monday on members of the Senate Judiciary Committee, was nominated by the President Jan. 19 to fill the vacancy created by the resignation under fire of Justice Abe Fortas last May.

Nixon had selected Clement F. Haynsworth Jr. for the high court, but the Senate in November voted 55 to 45 against confirmation of the South Carolinian who is chief judge of the 4th U.S. Court of Appeals.

Labor and civil rights groups raised the initial objections to Haynsworth, but after hearings started other senators joined the opposition because of his financial and stock transactions while on the bench.

Although labor leaders were among the chief witnesses against Haynsworth, Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., of the Judiciary Committee, told a reporter he knew of no request from the AFL-CIO to testify against Carswell.

Draft Boards Pay Heed To Decisions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Selective Service System has suspended its long-time practice of reclassifying and drafting violators of its regulations, in the wake of recent Supreme Court decisions.

The suspension also apparently negates a controversial recommendation by draft Director Lewis B. Hershey that antiwar demonstrators be drafted if they violate the law.

A spokesman disclosed Monday local draft boards were directed last week to suspend all processing of cases under the system's delinquency regulation pending "the termination of what action should be taken" as a result of a Jan. 19 Supreme Court decision.

That decision appeared to invalidate the delinquency regulation.

A second court decision, issued only Monday, states even more clearly that "induction pursuant to the deliquency regulation has not been authorized by Congress."

Selective Service lawyers had no immediate comment on the second decision.

Under the regulation, a draf registrant could be declared de linquent, classified 1-A and or dered for immediate inductio for failing to perform such re quired duties as carrying hi draft card and reporting change of address.

Oct. 26, 1967, Gen. Hershe sent a "letter" to local draf boards suggesting that viola tions of the law during antiwa or antidraft demonstration could justify processing the vio lators as draft delinquents.

When a federal appeals cour last year declared his polic "illegal and probably unconsti tutional," Hershey did not in form the local boards of tha opinion.

But last Wednesday's order t suspend delinquency processin covered "regulations or any oth er release from Selective Serv ice headquarters," the spokes man said, thus presumably in cluding the Hershey letter.

Monday's 6-2 court decisio upheld the right of Timothy J Breen to challenge his reclassi fication to 1-A because the delin quency regulation was legall unauthorized.

Two Men Safe After Two Weeks In Plane Wreckage

JACKSON, Calif. (AP) — Two men who spent two weeks in the wreckage of a light plane with the body of the pilot are safe today because of an erroneous smoke report and the determination of friends.

Neither Eugene Ebell, 33, nor Robert Staar, 17, suffered major injury from the Jan. 11 crash or their 15 days without food. Pilot Donald Shaver was crushed in the crash in the Sierra Nevada mountains.

Ebell had chartered the plane in Fresno, the hometown of all three men, to fly to Elko, Nev., to pick up the body of an uncle who was to be buried in Fresno. Staar, a friend of the pilot, went along for the ride.

Ebell said the pilot tried to turn back over the Sierra Nevada because the planes wings were icing but, in turning, they lost too much altitude and crashed.

Ebell and Staar were rescued by helicopter Monday from a rugged canyon 35 miles east of Jackson after Staar was spotted from the air.

They said they had heard and seen search planes regularly, but none came far enough up the mountains to see them. The crash site was near the 7,000-foot level of the Sierra about 180 miles east of San Francisco.

Staar set out Sunday to get help.

At the same time, searchers shifted their aerial hunt to the east because of an apparently erroneous report of smoke. On their way to the area Monday, Doyle Hawkins and helicopter pilot George Wurzburg spotted Staar beside a log where he had slept overnight after walking 3½ miles.

Up to 20 planes a day had searched the Sierra for the wreckage the first week, then gave up. Friends and relatives of the missing men collected $1,400 and hired the helicopter last Friday to continue the aerial hunt.

Doctors at Amador Hospital said the survivors were treated for exposure and minor frostbite. Ebell also had some crushed ribs.

Guilty Plea Entered In Burglary Case

I-J SPECIAL REPORT

SANTA ROSA — Albert Wells, 29, of Sebastopol, has pleaded guilty to attempted burglary in Sonoma County Superior Court and has been set for possible sentencing on Feb. 19.

Wells was arrested Dec. 27 by Rohnert Park police after attempting to burgle the Home Appliance Co., 5665 Santa Rosa Avenue. Wells and two Cotati policemen were injured when Wells collided with a police car in attempting to escape.

Shaw Trial's Judge Freed In Vice Trial

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The judge who presided at the Clay Shaw trial has been declared innocent of charges that he supplied sex movies and women for a stag party.

Judge Edward A. Haggerty Jr., 56, was acquitted Monday night on charges of soliciting for prostitution, obscenity and resisting arrest.

Spectators in the courtroom cheered the verdict by one of Haggerty's colleagues on the Criminal District Court, Judge Matthew S. Braniff. He heard the case without a jury.

It was in Criminal District Court before Judge Haggerty that Shaw, a retired New Orleans businessman, was found innocent last March of a charge he conspired to assassinate President John F. Kennedy.

In Haggerty's own trial, Braniff ruled that the Dec. 17 stag party, at a midtown motel, actually was a private gathering and that police had no "probable cause" to raid it.

Brewer S. Pence, a police undercover agent who has a son on the vice squad, attended the party wearing a tiny radio transmitter with a microphone hidden under his tie. It broadcast conversations to police outside.

But Judge Braniff ruled that the police had not obtained court authorization for electronic eavesdropping and therefore it was illegal.

Pence testified that Judge Haggerty brought in a sack of sex films and when he discovered that the "chairman of the girlie committee" had fallen down on the job, he went out and brought back three women.

Pence said the judge, after watching several movies of various sexual antics, stood up and cried: "Why go on watching film when we have the real thing?"

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Fire Kills 55

JAKARTA (AP) — Fifty-five persons were killed and another 41 seriously burned in the central Java port town of Semarang when fire roared through a crowd collecting gasoline from a leaking pipeline, police reported today. They said most of the injured were expected to die.

More than 100 persons were packed around the leaking pipe when the gasoline suddenly erupted into flame.

Nineteen men, women and children died in the first searing blast of flame. A sea breeze fanned the fire and it spread quickly across the gasoline-soaked ground as the frantic crowd tried to escape.

Three Die On Rails

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP) — Three persons were killed and at least 57 injured today when six cars of a Richmond, Fredericksburg & Potomac Railroad passenger train derailed just south of here, authorities said.

Five of the cars plunged over an embankment, authorities said.

Most of the injuries were minor, spokesmen at two hospitals in the area said. Five persons were admitted, two for observation and three for treatment of injuries.

The Fairfax County Fire Department said it took 63 persons to two hospitals. The Alexandria Hospital said 39 persons were treated in its emergency room and two admitted. The Fairfax County hospital treated 13 patients on an emergency basis and hospitalized three others.

Missionaries Out

LAGOS (AP) — Thirty-two Irish missionaries from Biafra are being brought to Lagos and "almost certainly are being deported from Nigeria," a source close to the Roman Catholic archbishop of Lagos reported today.

Catholic authorities accuse the British High Commission of having a hand in the ouster, sources said.

They said the commander of the 3rd Marine Commando Division, Col. Olusegan Obasanjo, had ordered the priests out despite protests by an emissary of the Irish ambassador, and that other priests and nuns in the area were being taken to Port Harcourt for screening.

By contrast, in the northern part of the former Biafran territory the 1st Division has asked missionaries to stay and help with the relief work, the sources said. This group includes two American nuns.

New Chief

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — William P. Ellenburg, a gray-haired six-footer, has become the third police chief to serve under Mayor Carl B. Stokes in 26 months.

Ellenburg, 50, a former Detroit policeman who had been safety director at Grosse Pointe Park, Mich., for the past year, was appointed chief Monday.

He replaced Patrick L. Gerity in the $23,300-a-year post.

Gerity had been chief for 15 months, the second since Stokes, first Negro elected mayor of a major U.S. city, took office more than two years ago.

Gerity, who stepped back to the rank of deputy inspector at a $16,500 annual salary, was praised by Stokes for his integrity. But the mayor said a change was needed in view of a 54 per cent increase in the city's crime rate over the past year.

Smog View

BERKELEY (UP)I— Smog-free cars should be exempt from taxation and pollution-producing factories should be required to fly red flags, according to State Sen. Nicholas Petris, D-Oakland.

He told a symposium on air pollution Monday those features will be included in anti-smog legislation he plans to introduce in the next session of the Legislature.

The symposium was sponsored by the American Chemical Society, currently meeting on the University of California campus.

Welcomes Arms

Israeli Premier Golda Meir has welcomed President Nixon's pledge to maintain the arms balance in the Middle East by selling weapons to Israel, but the Arab press denounced it and called for reprisals against U.S. interests in the Middle East.

Mrs. Meir in a communique said the President's message to a conference of Jewish leaders in Washington Sunday "gives eloquent expression to the United States' friendship for Israel."

Even though Israel is "deeply concerned at certain United States diplomatic initiatives," the 71-year-old premier said, "we have never lost sight of the broad range of interests and objectives common to our two countries."

Roger Firestone Succumbs At 57

BRYN MAWR, Pa. (AP) — Roger S. Firestone, youngest of the five sons of Harvey S. Firestone, founder of the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., died Monday night in Bryn Mawr Hospital of an apparent heart attack. He was 57.

Firestone was stricken at his Bryn Mawr home. Dr. John Hoffa, Montgomery County coroner, said an autopsy would be performed to determine the cause of death, but that it appeared to have been from a heart attack.

Firestone was president of the Firestone Plastics Co. at Pottstown, Pa., and a director of the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. of Akron, Ohio.

Firestone was active in business and Republican political circles. He had been a member of the county Nixon for President Advisory Committee and served in an advisory capacity for the state GOP financial committee.

Breakfast Idea To Be Expanded

The monthly breakfast gatherings of businessmen and their employees on Miller Avenue in Mill Valley will be expanded, according to the host, Rev. John A. Macdonald, pastor of the first Baptist church.

Macdonald expressed distress at the lack of communication he said he discovered between his congregation and the surrounding community and others in town. The breakfasts have been held for more than five years at the church, 285 Miller Avenue, although not as a church activity.

Macdonald and his wife, Marilyn, have invited business and professional people from throughout Mill Valley to attend the first expanded breakfast at 7 a.m. Thursday.

A small charge is made to cover cost of groceries. Reservations must be made by calling the church.

12 Draft Eligible Men Get Reprive

Twelve draft eligible men in Marin County were given a reprieve from induction last week when national Selective Service System officials instructed local boards not to order men whose lottery numbers are above 60 to report for induction during February, according to executive secretary Joy M. Kinzer.

Marin's quota for February is 15. Marin selective service officials had already notified 15 men, with lottery numbers up to 102, to report Feb. 24. When federal officials issued their limitation order last Tuesday, cancellation notices were sent to 12 whose numbers were above 60, Mrs. Kinzer said.

Selective Service officials in 15 states reported that they, too, will be unable to fill their February draft quotas because of the No. 60 ceiling. Officials in 16 states and the District of Columbia said they thought they could meet their quotas, and those in 15 other states and New York City said they couldn't tell at this time, Associated Press has reported.

The No. 60 ceiling was ordered for the second operational month of the lottery system. A Selective Service System spokesman in Washington said the point of the February ceiling was to determine whether the Pentagon's call for 19,000 men could be met under such a restriction. He said if it cannot be, the difference would be made up in a later call.

The limitation will also insure that the 366 lottery numbers are called relatively uniformly throughout the country.

Assessment Plan Will Be Discussed

Whether to hold a bond issue for the purchase of a major park and the amount of the bond issue will come before the Novato City Council at 8 p.m. today in the Novato Community House.

The city manager will appoint a new police chief and submit his name for the council's ratification.

Other items to come before the council include receiving a report on leased housing, police uniform allowance, improving Scown Lane, hearing an appeal for a sign variance denial for Cloudburst carwash on Ford Way and the use of school buses for city recreation department trips to the snow.

Slides Causes Crash Of Autos

A 30-year-old Inverness man suffered minor injuries Sunday when he slowed his car on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard to drive around a mud slide in the road and was struck in the rear by another auto, the California Highway Patrol said yesterday.

John B. Read of Aberdeen way was treated for unspecified injuries by a West Marin physician.

The highway patrol said the accident occurred at 2:30 p.m. near Argyl Way, Inverness. The driver of the other car was Cathryn B. Balsa, 21, of San Jose.

Man Taken To Mental Center

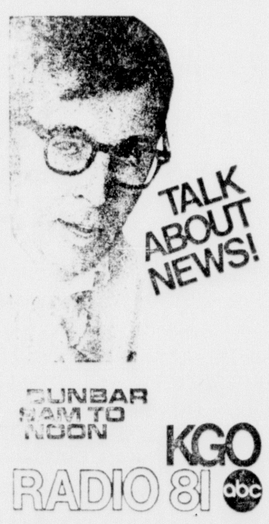

A Santa Clara carpenter, who said he had consumed 80 tranquilizers in an attempt to take his life, was admitted to the Community Mental Health Center at Marin General Hospital Saturday after his car ran off Novato Boulevard and hit a fence.

The California Highway Patrol said the man, Jerald Charles Jurgens, 22, was carrying two small caliber pistols, one of them loaded, when his auto ran off the road near 4350 Novato Boulevard at 5:30 p.m.

The highway patrol quoted Jurgens as saying he was depressed over family problems.

Door Shattered

A vandal shot a pellet through a $200 to $300 glass front door Saturday at H. Liebes and Co., 3800 Northgate Drive, San Rafael police reported yesterday. The door was damaged between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m., police said.

Deadline For Scholarships

Feb. 14 is the closing date for applications for Elks National Foundation college scholarships, according to Frank Armato, exalted ruler of the San Rafael Elks lodge.

He urged students needing financial help to contact Alfred J. Dalecio, youth activities chairman, at the lodge, 1312 Mission Avenue, San Rafael.

The foundation is offering 538 college scholarships totaling $397,000. To be eligible, the applicant must be a U.S. citizen.

Piano Quartet Will Open Spring Series Thursday

The Boyd Piano Quintet will open the spring concert series sponsored by the Music Associates of Dominican College at 8 p.m. Thursday in Caleruega Hall.

Composed of Santa Rosa residents, the Quintet includes Winifred Boyd, pianist and founder-leader; Polly Holbrook and Mildred Murphy, violinists; Lorelie Carpenter, violist; and Shirley Chilcott, cellist.

The program will include Beethoven's Piano Quintet in E Flat and Brahms' Quintet in F Minor.

All concerts sponsored by the Music Associates will start at 8 p.m. in Caleruega Hall. The second program of the series on Feb. 12 will feature chamber music with Kay Collette, soprano; Judith Phillips, flute; and Kenneth Ziegenfuss, piano.

Pianist Ted Balir and violinist Willard Tressel will play a program of Schoenberg, Beethoven and Brahms works on March 3, and the series will conclude on April 23 with the recital by tenor Paul Sperry in a program including compositions by Ravel, Schubert, Wolfe, Arne and Russian and Jewish songs.

By next Tuesday you can have your income tax refund.

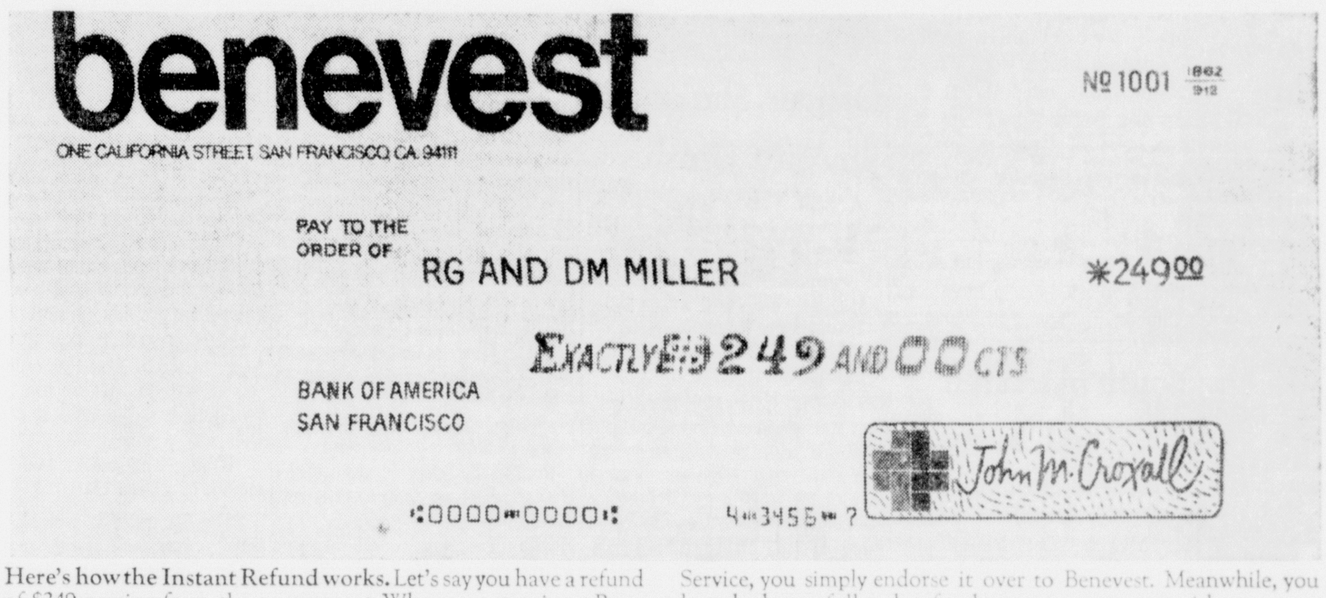

When Benevest does your taxes, you can get your refund the same day you file your return: it takes less than a week from start to finish.

The Benevest way of doing taxes is fast. Yet it's so thorough, so accurate, that we back it up with our own money by giving Instant Refunds.

The secret is the use of high-speed computers to handle all the mathematics required by the new forms.

Since the computer does all the math, our tax people can concentrate on analyzing your personal financial situation, to make sure you get all the deductions you're entitled to.

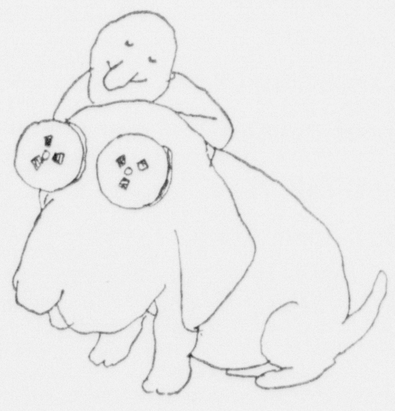

And that's the only way to make sure you don't pay more tax than you need to. (In fact, that's why the government introduced the new forms.)

Here's how the Instant Refund works. Let's say you have a refund of $249 coming from the government. When you stop in at Benevest to sign your completed return, Benevest can have a $249 check ready for you—your full refund.
Later, when you get your $249 check from the Internal Revenue Service, you simply endorse it over to Benevest. Meanwhile, you have had your full cash refund to use any way you wish.
There is no special fee, no percentage, no extra charge of any kind. The Instant Refund is part of Benevest's service, subject, of course, to your approval and ours.

At last, a friendly computer. It's on your side.

The Benevest computers are programmed to find the lowest legal tax at every step of the way. There are always several ways to figure any tax return.

The computer swiftly and accurately figures all of them. Then it selects the best way from your particular point of view. Example: Suppose you decide to itemize your deductions. The computer also figures your tax using standard deductions. Then it chooses the way that gives you the lowest tax. And so on.

This would be almost impossible to do by hand—far too time consuming. But not for the computer.

Extra services, no extra charge.

In addition to your Federal tax return, Benevest also prepares these documents at no extra charge:

California State Income Tax.

Quarterly estimates. If you are required to file them, Benevest prepares the necessary forms for you.

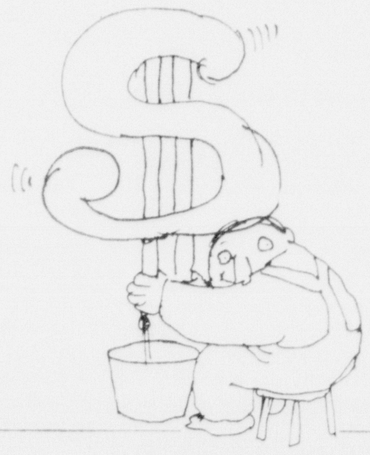

Retirement Income Credits. As a special service to over-65 taxpayers, Benevest automatically calculates retirement income credits and prepares the necessary documents at no extra charge. (Most tax services charge a substantial extra fee for this complicated calculation.)

How much does it cost?

Perhaps it sounds expensive. It isn't. The exact fee depends on how complicated your return is, just as with other tax services. But the use of computers helps keep the cost down and makes it possible to provide the Instant Refund as part of the service. Our people give you an accurate estimate of the cost before they start work on your return. (With or without the instant refund, your charge will be exactly the same.)

You'll like the Benevest way.

No waiting. Mail coupon or phone direct for an appointment at your most convenient Benevest office. (See below.)

It's a good way to be sure you get immediate attention when you come in.

Permanent, comfortable offices. Benevest offices are spacious, well appointed and comfortable. They're open all year 'round. The people don't disappear after April 15.

Less than half an hour. That's all of your time it takes for the average return—including itemized deductions and everything. (You don't need to wait around while someone does arithmetic: the computer does it after you leave.)

You get 2 copies. One copy is for the Government, one copy for your records.

100% accuracy. The Benevest system has been tested for 2 years, and its mathematical accuracy is unconditionally guaranteed. The computer even rechecks every return, looking for the same things government computers look for.

the staff recommendation that the commute book price be increased 85 cents. Greyhound's figures improperly included tolls paid for early commute buses that return to Marin for school charter, he said.

Bennett, a Democratic holdover on the PUC when replaced by Gov. Ronald Reagan, clashed several times with commissioner J.P. Vukasin Jr., a Reagan appointee.

The PUC's code of ethics required persons appearing before it to "maintain the respect of the commission," Vukasin admonished Bennett.

Bennett replied he would not be "intimidated" by the code. Vukasin was "evidently biased in some respect," Bennett added as the commissioner began to respond.

"Stop interrupting me or your participation in these proceedings will be stricken," Vukasin shot back.

McCracken later criticized the bridge district board for cutting fares on its ferries by one-third. The district was "stimulating the use of one form of public transit while discouraging the use of another form," he said.

The bridge board's vote to hike bus tolls, he declared, was "misdirected and vindictive" to punish Greyhound for past fare increases it won from the PUC. (The bridge district, which presumably will levy no toll against the buses it is planning to operate in place of Greyhound, cut one-way bus tolls in 1965 from $1 to 13 cents when Greyhound agreed to drop — for one year — its application for high commuter fares.)

The PUC's senior transportation engineer, Ora A. Phillips, testified that the cost of the toll hike properly should be borne by the commuters.

Citing Greyhound's monthly cost of $7,500 for higher tolls, which went into effect Jan. 1, McCracken said that any delay in getting PUC approval of its application could lead to "an additional surcharge" on commute books to "let the commuters know what the Golden Gate Bridge is doing."

The hearing was to resume today in the State Building. (Greyhound's application was to have been decided without a hearing, and only after the Marin County Board of Supervisors objected that they wanted to oppose the hike was a hearing set.)

$50,000 Check For King Cause

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, successor to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. as head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, has received a check for $50,000 from Swedish donors to the organization.

The check was handed to Abernathy Monday by Prof. Gunnar Myrdal, chairman of the Swedish Martin Luther King Foundation, at a government dinner.

Abernathy, who is on his first trip abroad, will lecture at Gothenburg and Lund before leaving for Atlanta, Ga., Saturday.

Tomales Youth Wins Contest

James Spaletta, of Point Reyes Station, a sophomore at Tomales High School, won first place, yesterday in the Future Farmers of America public speaking contest at Los Robles Lodge in Santa Rosa, according to faculty adviser Earl Smith.

Daryl Deniwitch of Santa Rosa High School took second and Thomas Brooks of Napa High School third in the three-county North Bay region, Smith said.

Other high schools competing were Sonoma Valley, Petaluma, Healdsburg high schools and Analy High of Sebastapol.

Repeated Heart Transplant Fails

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Gerald Rector, a 44-year-old former operating engineer whose second heart gave him hope of riding horses again some day, died today in University of Michigan Hospital, 11 days after receiving his third heart.

A hospital spokesman said Rector might have lived had the donor for his second transplant operation been found earlier.

Death was caused by kidney and liver failures.

Pedestrian Suffers Fractures Of Legs

William Faria, 46, of 44 Geary Avenue, Fairfax, ws reported in good condition today at Marin General Hospital with cuts and multiple fractures of both legs suffered when he was struck by an automobile at 7:45 p.m. yesterday.

Fairfax police said Faria was not in a crosswalk while crossing Sir Francis Drake Boulevard near Claus Drive, when he was struck by a vehicle driven by Linda Zanotti, 17, of 310 Butterfield Road, San Anselmo.

Takes Glass Louvers

A thief who tried Sunday night to break into a building at the Dexter Pontiac used car lot, 1504 Fourth Street, but was unable to gain entry, instead took $19 worth of glass louvers from a window, San Rafael police reported today.

Power Halted As Pole Burns

Electrical power to homes in East Petaluma was cut off for 40 minutes today when a utility pole on Adobe Road burned at 4:30 a.m.

Clifford Bartlett Jr., manager at the Petaluma Pacific Gas and Electric office, guessed about 2,000 homes were without power for 40 minutes but that the Old Adobe School and five customers on Adobe Road were still without service at 10:30 a.m.

Bartlett said the reason for the fire was unknown, but noted that recent rains may have contributed.

Youth Arrested As Weed Suspect

Sheriff's deputies yesterday arrested a 20-year-old Stinson Beach youth on suspicion of possessing marijuana after he was stopped at the entrance to Stinson Beach State Park for riding a minibike on a highway.

The officer searched Terry Morris Schmidt after he was found to have outstanding traffic warrants and said that he had a lid of suspected pot with him.

He was held in Marin County Jail in lieu of $940 bail to appear in Marin Municipal Court today.

Probation, Jail Sentence Given

Judge E. Warren McGuire of Marin Superior Court yesterday placed David Stanley Rose, 19, of Novato, on two years probation and ordered him to spend 60 days in jail for a car theft.

He also warned Rose, who has a long list of arrests, that he was headed for state prison if he did not change his ways.

Rose's most recent arrest was on Dec. 29 when he was reportedly driving a car stolen in Tiburon.

Rohnert Park Woman Suffers Head Injury

Barbara Molnar, 31, of 450 Arlen Drive, Rohnert Park, was reported in good condition at Petaluma General Hospital with a head cut suffered in an accident yesterday at 2:25 a.m. on Highway 101 near Pepper Road, north of Petaluma.

The California Highway Patrol said her car crossed the center divider strip and struck a tree on the north side of the highway.

Board Hears Tax Hike Is Necessary

A citizens advisory committee on finance told the Lagunitas School District board last night a 78-cent tax increase per $100 assessed valuation will be necessary to avoid cutting down on the school program or staff.

Trustee Glen E. Twitchell said the committee, headed by Donald B. Lethbridge of Woodacre, said salary increases were not included in the increased tax consideration.

Teachers also submitted a proposal for a salary raise, Twitchell said. No specific amount was called for by the teachers, but only a request for whatever funds would permit.

The board will hold a special session at 8 p.m. Feb. 16 at the Lagunitas School to study the salary issue, Twitchell said.

A 12-member committee was named by the board to establish educational goals for the district, Twitchell added. The committee will make an initial report at the next regular meeting at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 9 at Lagunitas School.

Guilty Plea To Club Burglary

Harold Gene McDonald, 21, of Sausalito yesterday pleaded guilty in Marin Superior Court to a charge of burglarizing the Mill Valley Tennis Club last March.

Judge E. Warren McGuire placed McDonlad on probation for 90 days and ordered him to pay a $190 fine. He also gave him a suspended 15-day jail sentence.

McDonald and two other youths had been found inside the clubhouse where boxes filled with liquor bottles had been stacked by a door. Nothing had been removed from the building, police said.

Officer Shaken In Auto Crash

A Mill Valley police officer was shaken up yesterday when his patrol car was struck by another auto at East Blithedale and Ryan avenues.

The officer, Roger G. Neil, 27, said he would see a private physician for treatment.

Neil said he was en route, patrol car siren wailing, to Highway 101 at 5:20 p.m. to assist the California Highway Patrol in a chase when a car driven by Alexander C. Tresise, 68, of 53 Fern Avenue of Mill Valley, entered East Blithedale traffic.

Neil said he swerved but couldn't avoid hitting the Tresise auto.

Drug Related Probation Term

Judge E. Warren McGuire of Marin Superior Court yesterday placed Charles Vallee Moran Jr., 25, of Sausalito, on one year probation and ordered him to pay a $150 fine and refrain from associating with narcotics addicts.

Moran had earlier pleaded guilty to a charge of possessing marijuana. He was arrested Sept. 3 after a Sausalito policeman said he saw him moving a marijuana plant to a sunny spot near his apartment.

McGuire also gave Moran a suspended 30-day jail sentence.

Museum Trustees Choose Year's Slate

Robert A. Roumiguiere of San Rafael was elected president of the Louise A. Boyd Marin Museum of Science at the museum's annual meeting last night, according to a museum spokesman.

Other officers elected were: Robert A. Reeves of San Rafael, vice-president; Patricia Arrigoni of Fairfax, secretary, and William H. Richardson of Ross, treasurer.

NIXON

us are for education and health and others against it ... The question is: How much can the federal government afford to spend on these programs this year?"

Then, after listing the reasons he said counted against the appropriation that exceeded his recommendations by $1.26 billion, Nixon, with the TV camera focused tightly on his right hand, signed the veto message —the first of his administration.

Never before had a President wielded his veto pen before television cameras. And it seemed unlikly any bill ever had made so swift a round trip between Capitol Hill and the White House—less than a day.

In reaching past the Democratic-controlled Congress to argue his case before the nation, Nixon assured a White House-Capitol Hill showdown.

The confrontation has been building for more than a month, since Congress first defied Nixon protests and fashioned the $19.7 billion appropriation for the departments of Health, Education and Welfare, Labor and the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Final congressional action came Monday in the House, which settled a side issue by voice vote and rushed the contested appropriation on to the President.

Nixon's retort was swift:

"I believe that the increase over the amount I recommended, the increase which is contained in this bill passed by the Congress, is not in the best interests of all the American people because it is the wrong amount for the wrong purposes and at the wrong time."

As he has from the beginning, Nixon called the appropriation inflationary. And as they have from the beginning, Democrats insisted it is not.

Former Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey restated a Democratic contention that Congress actually cut the Nixon budget by $5 billion, even counting the increased health and education spending. Humphrey said the appropriation "is clearly not inflationary," and urged Congress to override the veto.

It will take a two-thirds vote in both the House and Senate to override Nixon.

The administration needs 145 House votes to sustain the veto. House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan said the American people want it that way. He said Nixon had presented them a convincing case.

Ronald L. Ziegler, the White House press secretary, said the administration is confident the House will not override the President.

Democrats rate their chances of overriding Nixon better in the Senate—if the issue ever gets there.

If the House sustains the veto, the question will be settled, and the bill will be dead.

Rep. Carl Albert of Oklahoma, the majority leader, said he considers the chance of overriding Nixon to be fair, adding it would be hypocrisy for the 86 Republicans who originally approved the bill to switch now and support the veto.

But that, in some cases, is the certain outcome.

If the veto is sustained, Congress will have to fashion a new appropriation bill, presumably more attuned to the Nixon budget, or arrange to continue the spending authority of the agencies involved by resolution. They have been financed on that stop-gap system since the current budget year began, last July 1.

Nixon noted the year covered by the bill already is waning. "When money is spent in a hurry, a great deal is wasted," he said.

But Rep. Carl D. Perkins, D-Ky., said the veto will not curb inflation, "it will only deny educational opportunities to millions of American schoolchildren."

Nixon said if the veto is sustained, he will immediately seek an appropriation "to provide for the needs of the nation in education and health.

Drug Case Treatment Agreement

An out-of-court agreement has been reached between a Sausalito couple and the Community Health Center on drug treatment for the couple's 20-year-old son.

William P. G. Chapin and his wife Eleanor, a former Sausalito councilman, filed suit Jan. 12 against the center, charging their son Mark had been sent to Napa State Hosptial instead of Mendocino State Hospital as promised.

The youth has since been transferred to Mendocino, and attorneys who met yesterday in chambers of Marin Superior Court Judge Joseph G. Wilson agreed no further action was necessary.

Mark Chapin was picked up Dec. 10 at the University of California at Berkeley "in a disoriented state of mind" and taken to the Marin mental health center. He was transferred to Napa Dec. 22. According to the suit, he suffers drug intoxication resulting from use of LSD and methedrine.

CARSWELL

statement. I had to see it to believe I had."

He said, as he had said last week, that the words he had used in the speech are "obnoxious and abhorrent" to him.

Carswell, asked about his financial holdings, testified "I have no stocks, no bonds whatsoever."

He said he never in his life has owned stocks.

He told the committee he has a three-sixteenth interest in 1,200 acres of unimproved pineland in Wilkinson County, Ga., and also owns a house worth about $90,000 on which he carries a $55,000 mortgage.

Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., also questioned Carswell further about his 1948 white supremacy speech and asked him if he were saying that he didn't believe it when he said it or has since changed his opinion.

Carswell said it was difficult to probe back into the recesses of one's mind, but he told Hart "I suppose I believed it at the time."

"What caused you to change?" asked Hart.

"The course of 22 years of history," Carswell said, adding there have been vast changes in the country, and in the South particularly.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., said he was interested in what Carswell considered to be some of the most pressing issues confronting the nation, asking him to list four or five.

Carswell replied that he was not prepared to draw up "my own private list of priorities" but he said that poverty and great problems with narcotics and crime are some of the issues facing the nation. He also mentioned the frustrations of young people, and problems of education, job training and employment.

Span Employee Rescues Youth

A 17-year-old Los Angeles youth, who said he envisioned a better life after death through LSD, climbed over the railing of the Golden Gate Bridge and sat on a girder at midspan for tense moments yesterday.

A California Highway Patrol officer appeared at 4:10 p.m. and tried to coax the youth, James Randall Jordan, back to the bridge sidewalk. His efforts failed. A bridge steelworker was finally summoned to bring Jordan back to safety.

Jordan, who said he has been taking LSD for 18 months, was committed to San Francisco General Hospital.

OBITUARIES

Edith Kaplan Dies At 71

Funeral for Edith Kaplan of Greenbrae, retired San Francisco grocery store owner, was held today at Sinai Memorial Chapel in San Francisco with burial at Eternal Home Cemetery, Colma.

Mrs. Kaplan, a 10-year resident of the Greenbrae Apartments at 42 Corte Solano, died at a local hospital Sunday after a chronic illness. She was 71.

A native of Lithuania, Mrs. Kaplan moved to San Francisco 48 years ago where she and her late husband operated a grocery store for 25 years on Bush Street. Her husband, Julius, died 10 years ago, five years after the couple retired.

Mrs. Kaplan resided in San Francisco for 28 years and in San Mateo for 10 years before coming to Marin.

She was a member of the Goldenaires, the Senior Citizens of San Rafael, B'nai B'rith and Congregation Rodef Sholom.

Surviving are two sons, Myron Kaplan of Larkspur, Mervyn R. Kaplan of Terra Linda and six grandchildren.

ELDON ERSKINE

Erlon E. Erskine of Mill Valley, a retired San Francisco businessman, died Friday at his home at 235 Oakdale Avenue after a long illness. He was 78.

Erskine retired 17 years ago from the wholesale produce business.

Born in Chino, San Bernardino County, Erskine had lived in Marin County since 1939.

Survivors are his wife, Hazel; two sons, Warren C. of Mill Valley and Donald E. Erskine of Palo Alto, and four grandchildren.

No service was held. The family prefers contributions to the American Cancer Society.

ANNA O'HARA

Requiem Mass for Mrs. Anna O'Hara of 11 San Rafael Avenue, San Anselmo, will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at St. Anselm's Church, San Anselmo.

Mrs. O'Hara, wife of James J. O'Hara, a retired carpenter, died Sunday at a local hospital after a five-month illness.

Burial will be at Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael. Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. today at the Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo.

Among her survivors is a daughter, Mrs. Lillis Thompson of San Rafael, erroneously identified in yesterday's Independent-Journal as Mrs. Vilas Thompson.

LORRAINE CERINI

Requiem mass for Lorraine C. Cerini, 81, a lifetime resident of Tomales, was offered today at St. Vincent de Paul Church, Petaluma. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Petaluma.

Miss Cerini died Friday at a Hayward rest home after a long illness. She was a secretary for the San Francisco Chronicle for many years and was also a secretary for Western Pacific Railroad before retiring 20 years ago.

She is survived by two sisters, Frances Cerini and Mrs. Zelma Hinshaw, both of San Rafael.

50-Cent Toll Hike For Bay Span Eyed

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Sen. Lewis F. Sherman said Monday he plans to introduce a bill increasing from 50 cents to $1 the toll on the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge to finance a free trans-bay bus service.

The Berkeley Republican said his measure also would reserve one bridge lane for the exclusive use of commute buses.

LETTIE BOWMAN

Lettie E. Bowman, 84, of 199 Tamalpais Avenue, Mill Valley, died yesterday in a local hospital after a long illness.

Born in North Carolina, Mrs. Bowman had lived in Marin 47 years. She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Mill Valley.

Survivors are two sons, Kenneth G., with whom she lived; William E. of McMinnville, Ore.; a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Ann Wright of Santa Rosa; three sisters, Mrs. Lillie Fisher, Mrs. E. M. Owen and Mrs. J. F. Miller, and a brother, James Harper, all of Tennessee; 16 grandchildren, and 15 great-grandchildren.

Funeral will be held at 3 p.m. tomorrow at the First Baptist Church. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

Extensive Hunt Fails To Produce Burglar Suspect

The burglar who fired on two Sausalito police officers Sunday has eluded an extensive search and may have left the area, Sausalito police reported today.

The dark-haired man, described as being in his 20s, six-feet tall, 150-55 pounds, with shoulder length hair, is being sought for questioning in connection with three Sausalito burglaries.

He escaped into the underbrush of a steep wooded canyon area east of Highway 101 Sunday after exchanging fire with officers who answered a silent alarm at the David Redmond residence, 237 Santa Rosa Avenue.

A search of the canyon failed to turn up any sign of the fugitive and police said they are seeking new leads.

Capt. David Malkin of the Sausalito Police Department said the Independent-Journal erred yesterday in reporting police fired first at the man when he refused to halt. He said the man fired first at officers who then returned the shots.

Jury Indictment In Slaying Case

The Marin County Grand Jury yesterday indicted Robert A. Cosey, 36, of San Rafael on a murder charge stemming from the Jan. 18 shotgun slaying of his friend, Erma Clay Brown, 32, in a San Rafael apartment.

Police said the shooting followed an evening of arguing by the couple.

Cosey will appear in Marin Superior Court Monday for arraignment. He is being held in jail.

Drunk's Medal

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Peter the Great tried to encourage sobriety among 18th century Russians by insisting that men jailed for drunkenness had to wear a "medal for hard drinking" around their necks a ll the time they were imprisoned, says the National Goegraphic. The medal weighed 18 pounds.

MOUNT TAMALPAIS CEMETERY
Quiet Beauty
for families of every faith

Ninety years ago, Marin pioneers set aside this lovely site as a final resting place for all faiths.
Since then, Mount Tamalpais has developed facilities to meet each family's preference. Here are lovely gardens, the Angeles Garden or Memory Chapel mausoleums for above-ground burial, Marin's modern new crematorium, and the Chapel of Light Columbarium.
If you haven't visited Mount Tamalpais, you are invited to see the beauty of its typically Marin setting. Our staff will be glad to answer your questions.

DEFICITS REPORTED

Austerity Ahead For Mill Valley

The Mill Valley City Council took a look at the municipal economy last night and found a muddled past and a bearish future.

As for the past, the city's 1968-69 audit report showed deficits in two spending areas and a difference in the general fund balance as estimated by former City Finance Director Frederic D. Kerr and as tabulated after June 30 by the auditors, Cooper and Kerr of San Rafael.

For the future, City Mgr. William H. Cunningham warned of the need for fiscal restraint to build up needed reserves and said he would present an austerity budget for the 1970-71 fiscal year that might still require a tax increase.

The audit was presented to the council in December, six months late. Harry J. Cooper, a partner in the accounting firm, told the council last night this was due to hiring of new city personnel, including Cunningham and Finance Director Carl W. Reynolds, and assignment of a new auditor from his firm to the job.

Cunningham joined the city just prior to the end of the 1969 fiscal year and Reynolds was not hired until November, five months after Kerr, the other partner in the Cooper firm, retired.

Deficits of $38,762 in the 1968-69 parks and recreation account and of $7,209 in the drainage account were reported in a separate memorandum to the city from the accounting firm. Cunningham said the parks and recreation deficit included a $20,000 expenditure incurred in moving the community recreation center to its present site on East Blithedale Avenue.

In a letter, the auditors said they had been unable to reconcile a $480 difference between a general fund balance of $97,607 as projected by Kerr and as ultimately tabulated. In one case, the firm said, the sum of $12,941, intended as gas tax funds, was erroneously entered in the general fund.

Cooper also reported that $29,000 in retirement funds was placed in the general fund—an improper act, according to City Atty. Leland H. Jordan—because tax dollars were not forthcoming for this purpose. Richard Y. Martz, an accountant with Cooper and Kerr, said the $29,000 should have remained in the retirement fund.

Cooper several times firmly denied any evidence of fiscal impropriety or incompetency by the former or present city administration. In fact, he said, "It's typical of audits for Mill Valley in previous years . . ." Cunningham owed the muddled fiscal picture to "errors of posting."

Cooper said errors may have "crept in" during the period the city was without a finance director. Clerks who were working on the books didn't get needed supervision and guidance, he said.

For this fiscal year, Cunningham presented a balance sheet which estimated the city would end up with a carryover balance of $162,786 — a large portion of which, he said, is restricted in use. Last year's carryover was $329,258.

Cunningham called for belt-tightening in city spending this year and opened the door for sharp cuts in programs, possibly combined with a tax rate boost, in the 1970-71 fiscal year.

Councilman Jerome C. Haucke said he hoped the city could still purchase a fire truck it has needed but Cunningham said, "I'd be certainly hesitant to try to get the cost of an engine out of next year's budget."

He said the city faces an increase in municipal salaries of $40,000 next year.

In budget trimming for next year, said Councilman Robert H. Andresen, "some toes may have to be tromped on in the process . . . they are no sacred cows."

In other business last night, the council rescinded a contract awarded last week to A Plus Engineering of Pinole for Dell Street drainage work, giving the job to the second lowest bidder, Ghilotti Brothers of San Rafael.

City Engineer Stanley M. Bala said A Plus, a new firm, lacked a state contractors' license. The work will cost $5,470 under Ghilotti's bid.

Bagley Presses For Welfare's Shift To State

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — The recent report on welfare fraud issued by the state Department of Social Welfare was cited today by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, as "more evidence that welfare should be administered by the state, not the counties."

Bagley, speaking at a luncheon of the Republican Associates, a Sacramento GOP organization, said that counties "are failing in their duty to administer welfare programs effectively."

Shifting welfare administration to the state would lift up to $300 million from "the backs of the property taxpayer," Bagley said, adding such a shift would be one important element of this year's tax reform package.

He noted that if the state took over welfare, the property taxpayer "won't have welfare to kick around any more."

The recent state report said fraud was suspected in 16 per cent of the cases under aid to families with dependent children.

Urgent Plea For Housing Authority

The Petaluma City Council last night took a cautious look at the proposed housing authority for Sonoma County and said it would need statistics before reaching a conclusion.

Steven Mettler of the Sonoma County Housing Committee asked council support in his group's efforts to have the board of supervisors establish a housing authority.

Mettler said the authority would not be involved with building large housing projects as government housing groups have done in the past. He said the group would set up a leasing program with private individuals and firms.

While owners would be paid market value rents for their buildings, the authority would sublease them to low income families for less through subsidies from the federal government. Mettler said most authorities charge families 25 per cent of their monthly income for rent.

He caled the housing shortage in Sonoma County serious and said the greatest need is for elderly persons and others on fixed incomes. Mettler said that if 500 to 600 units are provided, there would probably still be a waiting list of prospective tenants.

In soliciting support, Mettler urged the council to attend the public hearing on the plan to be held by supervisors on Feb. 3 at 3:30 p.m.

The council questioned the need for subsidized housing in Petaluma and said it would like to see statistics before seeking units. They said local representation on any housing authority would also be desired before the council participates.

The Petaluma City Council also:

INSURANCE — Renewed its contract with California Life Insurance Co. for coverage of city employees at a rate of $1.10 per month per employee.

ELECTED — Heard a report that Mayor Helen Putnam had been elected as the Redwood Empire Division representative to the state board of directors of the California League of Cities.

RAILROAD — Heard Vice Mayor John W. Cavanagh Jr. request that maintenance be improved on the railroad tracks on the east side of the D Street bridge.

Reluctant Approval Of 17 Sabbaticals

With a regretful look at the budget, the Tamalpais High School District board yesterday approved sabbatical leaves for 14 district teachers during 1970-71.

But the sabbatical leave policy, which will cost $81,869 in 1970-71, will be reviewed and possibly cut back during the next budget sessions, trustees indicated.

The board also approved five leaves of absence for other teachers. Eight sabbaticals will be for a full year and six for a semester.

The board voted 3-1 to approve the sabbaticals, Frank L. Miller opposing. Trustee David R. Ring, who spoke against the sabbatical policy last week, was absent.

Miller called sabbaticals a fringe benefit for teachers that is getting costly and should be re-examined.

Chairman Bette Wallace and trustees Gloria Melbostad and Robert W. Corlett agreed, but said the present applicants are well into planning their sabbaticals, relying on existing board policy.

"This will be a prime topic of negotiation for next year," Mrs. Wallace said.

Ten of the 14 teachees plan to travel abroad for study. They will receive half-pay while on leave.

The trustees also met with the Next Step Analysis committe on district management and the three-man committee which will screen applicants for a new district superintendent.

The board approved paying the committee $2,200 for its work in selection. Chairman Hobart Burns said a district teacher and student should be added to the screening committee early in the process, but the board should not be represented until a later stage.

Guilty Plea To Dope Burglary

Donald Richard Doody, 38, of San Francisco, pleaded guilty yesterday in Marin Superior Court to a charge of possessing amphetamine when arrested Sept. 20 at the Renaissance Pleasure Faire.

A second charge of offering to sell LSD was dismissed.

Judge E. Warren McGuire declared the offense a misdemeanor and fined Doody $150.

Parked Car Looted Of $200 In Parts

Theft of $200 worth of auto parts from a parked station wagon during the weekend has been reported to San Rafael Police by Walter D. Couch, 115 Bellam Blvd.

Couch, owner of the San Rafael Body and Paint Shop, said the parts, including a radiator, engine manifold and distributor, were taken from the back seat shop.

Grier Seeks To End Marriage

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Entertainer Roosevelt "Rosey" Grier, a former tackle for the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League, is asking Superior Court to dissolve his marriage to Bernice C. Grier.

Grier, 37, cited irreconciliable differences in his petition Monday.

He and Mrs. Grier, also 37, were married Feb. 2, 1962, in Montclair, N.J. Mrs. Grier is a nurse. There are no children.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

8 EDITORIAL PAGE San Rafael, Calif. Tuesday, January 27, 1970

TODAY'S EDITORIALS

Last Year's Problems Still Plague Supervisors

Two of 1969's problems still seem to have the Marin County Board of Supervisors bogged down in 1970.

Which is the snarlier of the two would be hard to say.

The first concerns the county's mental health setup.

WHEN THE SUPERVISORS of seven years ago voted to seek Short-Doyle Act funds to institute a mental health program in Marin, they little dreamed what they were starting.

The program has grown tremendously. Mental health services first appeared in the county budget for fiscal 1964 with a figure of $10,000. The mental health budget for the current year is $2,240,178.

This growth alone would have created plenty of problems. But the picture was complicated when the county contracted with Marin Hospital District to operate the mental health center, resulting in dual control of mental health services. It was perhaps inevitable that the two governments — county supervisors and hospital board — sooner or later would find themselves on different tracks, pursuing different philosophies, especially in anything so controversial as mental health.

IT HAPPENED SOONER rather than later. The supervisors solved nothing last year by releasing Dr. Clyde G. Miller as mental health chief and replacing him with his assistant, Dr. Leon R. Wanerman. Nor did the Marin Mental Health Advisory Board solve the problem last week by proposing that the mental health center, operated by the hospital district and headed by Dr. Donald P. Wilson, be put under Wanerman's operation for the county.

When the advisory board did that, Dr. Wilson got so upset he accused the board members of "chickening out."

There may be some question as to whether the mental health of Marinites is $2,240,178 worth better this year than it was eight years ago. There seems little question that the mental attitudes of those who have had to deal with the problem have not been improved 10 cents' worth.

THE SECOND CARRY-OVER that continues to plague the county board of supervisors is Fair-Marin.

This came into being because the supervisors thought it somehow would be simpler to operate the county fairgrounds and Veterans Memorial Auditorium through a non-profit corporation than to operate them as county facilities under the parks and recreation department.

There has been nothing simple about it so far.

Last week, in the latest of a series of Fair-Marin vs. supervisors' confrontations, the Fair-Marin people discovered to their surprise that there is a master plan for the property. Harold Stockstad, Fari-Marin president, had been insisting a $9 million development plan was needed before raising money to complete the auditorium.

THE AUDITORIUM, the supervisors ruled, will open this year with 800 seats and no behind-stage orchestra shell. As to the fair itself, that seems to be receding farther and farther into the future.

Supervisor Chairman John F. McInnis insisted the auditorium must open "with a performance of national stature."

With 800 seats?

"Now, put it in first gear and go ahead very slowly . . ."

Bridge District Board Needs To Clean Up Its Meetings

By PAUL E. PETERZELL

Meetings of Golden Gate Bridge District directors have been dissolving with increasing frequency into hopelessly ridiculous confusion.

Rules of order are utterly forgotten as motions, with and without the dignity of seconds, are followed by jumbles of motions to amend, substitute and table — or even to take some action unrelated to the motion still somewhere on the floor.

The directors could get away with such uncontrolled behavior in the days when no one paid any attention to them, but those days are gone. An aroused public now haunts every meeting, and the poor conduct of most of the directors only serves to convince the public that they are undemocratic and incompetent.

THE UNFORTUNATE fact is that most of the blame for the mismanaged meetings rests on the president of the bridge board, William Moskovitz of San Francisco. His good intentions are unquestioned, but he simply is not firm enough to control the meetings.

The board has become a political battleground as it struggles to get into the transit business. It no longer is a quiet gentleman's club, and requires an exceptionally strong chairman.

One solution being discussed among bridge directors would be to make first vice president Lowell Edington of Napa County the board's presiding officer — a nicety that could solve the problem of what to do with Moskovitz without dumping him as president.

ANOTHER inconvenient leftover from the board's clubby days is the district's attorney, Jerome B. White of San Francisco. Unquestionably a man of remarkable vigor for 86, he, like Moskovitz, is not up to the exceptional demands of his position.

It is extremely difficult to dislodge men who do not see their unsuitability for their positions, but the other bridge directors no longer can afford the luxury of such liabilities. Too much public interest is involved for the directors to avoid these hard decisions.

SEN. JOHN F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, is going full bore to push the candidacy of his anointed successor, Raymond H. Stone of Nicasio. Last Wednesday, for example, McCarthy had a breakfast for Shone at the Hotel Mirador in Sacramento — with about a dozen of the top lobbyists.

McCarthy's staff reacted with typical candor when we asked about the purpose of the breakfast. "What breakfast?" they asked.

An ironic twist was that the lobbyists agreed to the breakfast only after they asked Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, if he had any objection to it.

Relations between Bagley and McCarthy chilled somewhat after it turned out that McCarthy told Shone of his plan to retire three months before he told Bagley.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Editorial Gets At Real Question

I should like to commend you for your editorial of Jan. 19, regarding the Reed Union School District grading controversy. The reporting which has appeared in your newspaper, and others, in the past covering this sorry situation has begged the question. Your editorial comes closer to true reporting.

I would point out two errors, however: One, Gordon C. Wright campaigned for the proposed tax increase, not against, as you state, and garnered the most votes of the three newly-elected members, even though the proposed increase was defeated. Mr. Wright would appear to be a moderate in this melee and should be supported. Two, and most important, the letter grades, which have been used all along by some teachers, are not to replace either the parent-teacher conferences or the in-depth evaluation; they are an addition at parental option only. . .

As I understand the board's goals, it wants to standardize reporting to parents and evaluate our present programs before discontinuing any or inaugurating new ones. What could be more reasonable? Why the hysteria?

Community Pays, But Is Ignored

Brickbats to Mr. William J. Schisler, Greenbrae, for his article, "Morale Impaired in Reed District," Jan. 19 I-J.

Educators will have the support of the board and the community when they start being sensitive to the wishes of the community. It is time for the tail to quit wagging the dog. The community pays the salary of the teachers and should have a say in what they get for their money. The board is elected by the community to exercise some control of the school system. The defeat of four trustees since 1967 seems to indicate the community has had their fill. It appears to be that the term coordination is being overworked and usually in the negative. When you do not give in to the other party you fail to coordinate. I suggest the school board issue non-negotiable demands and grades on report cards head the list.

CHARLES L. CORNELL

Grooming Really Up To Parents

I have been involved in athletics as a participant and coach for over 40 years. It has been a happy and valuable experience for me and I heartily endorse it for all boys and girls. . . The trustees of the Tamalpais school board evidently feel the same way, otherwise they wouldn't be appropriating all that money for its support. It seems to me, however, that their ruling on the H-R question is not in the best interests for the program or the students who do and wish to participate in it.

When I was going to high school a long time ago, I had to get a very short butch haircut if I wanted to participate in athletics. No one questioned this — at least not openly. If you wanted to play, that's what you did. . . Many years went by and styles began to change. . . Coaches and administrators reacted. . . "cut your hair or don't play". . .

I we believe that athletics is a worthwhile activity, why do we go about deliberately alienating some students from its benefits simply because we don't like the way they look? . . . Rules are meant to be obeyed but foolish rules are meant to be changed. . .

I am not an anarchist and I believe in responsible discipline for athletes. On the other hand a coach has the responsibility of treating every student fairly. . .

In contrast to the action taken by the Tamalpais school board, I offer a more workable and appropriate guideline for the problem of general grooming in school. This is a new policy recently adopted by the Stanislaus Union School District:

"The role of the school staff is to educate students. The role of the parents is to decide what is appropriate school dress. All students shall attend school in a manner which is clean and not hazardous to their safety or the safety of others." . . .

Principal Slapped For Hair Remarks

Not only because of what he said, but because it was allowed to go unchallenged, I was disturbed by two statements made by Principal Donald Kreps of Redwood High School at the "hair meeting" of the district board this past Monday night (Jan. 19).

1. Mr. Kreps said that the same majority of his own faculty who oppose his hair policy had been silent in the past, though the same policy was then in effect. The inference can only be that their silence implied consent. That is ridiculous. . . It was coach Troppman's move to enforce the rule that produced the outcry, rather than any sudden shift of sentiment among the faculty.

2. Mr. Kreps stated that no system of school administration can exist below the departmental level. This was a gratuitous rebuff of his sister school, Tamalpais High, which does administer grooming policies at the sub-departmental — i.e., the individual coach — level, and whose rules to that effect the board at that same meeting approved enthusiastically and unanimously. There are thousands of schools and other institutions, such as hospitals, etc., where leeway far more important than that of a pre-dimensioned haircut is given to the induvidual teachers, surgeons etc., who deal with the students, patients, etc., direct. If Mr. Kreps fails to understand this, he shoud not saddle some other neighboring high school with his lack of perception.

Pro-Consuls Make The Policies In Strange 'American Century'

WASHINGTON — It was the late Henry R. Luce, founder of Time, Life, etc., etc., who proclaimed the American Century. His vision of an American imperium presided over by wise pro-consuls around the world called forth at the time indignant cries of protest. This was not the American dream of those embedded in the long tradition initiated with George Washington's warning against foreign entanglements.

In the unhappy conviction of critics in Congress, the American imperium is a reality today. Thinly disguised in the rhetoric of aiding peoples to achieve democracy and independence, the pro-consul, whether in military uniform or the morning coat of diplomacy, exercises an authority undreamed of a few short years ago.

EVERY DAY of the year the Constitution is breached and the authority of Congress mocked. When the pro-consuls come before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee they are polite, evasive. They testify in substance only behind the screen of secrecy held up for reasons of "national security."

Secrecy versus the right of Congress and the people to know is the focus of a controversy bound to generate more heat in the current session. The immediate issue is the "sanitized" transcript of the closed hearings into the undeclared war in Laos before Sen. Stewart Symington's subcommittee.

The transcript has been so censored in the State Department that it is meaningless, according to committee members. They are demanding that vital facts be restored — the cost of America's effort, well over $200 million a year; the cost of Thai support forces sent into Laos; the use of American bombers idled by halting the bombing of North Vietnam. And, above all, the answer to why the United States should be involved in such an undeclared war.

With the backing of President Nixon, the State Department is standing pat. There is a possibility the subcommittee will publish and be damned. After all, Sen. J. William Fulbright of the Symington group points out, most of the material was in a series of articles written by Henry Kamm of the New York Times from Laos.

THE PRESIDENT in his skillful State of the Union message said that prospects for peace are far greater today than they were a year ago. Fulbright and the other critics know the public believes Mr. Nixon means to end the war. He has scored a great gain in public acceptance of his Vietnam policy.

But what is his ultimate intention? Does he mean to withdraw all American forces, leaving only a small residue at the end of, say, two years? Or, in spite of the impressive rhetoric about Vietnamization and peace, will perhaps 200,000 Americans be left in Southeast Asia as the mainstay of America's position and a bulwark of the imperium? These are questions troubling the doubters.

IN THE GULF of suspicion and distrust between the White House and the Senate — or an important element of the Senate — minor irritants play a part. The Symington subcommittee inquiring into why the United States provided $39 million for a small contingent of Philippine support troops in Vietnam got caught in an election crossfire. U. S. Ambassador Henry A. Byroade, talking to the Manila Rotary Club, said, "I ask you to consider the source."

The senators were furious. They were angered by a speech by Maj. Gen. R. G. Ciccolella, head of the military mission in Formosa, attacking civilian control over the military and denouncing the cry of "no more Vietnams" as "sweet music to the ears of communist plotters." The report reaching the committee was that Ciccolella was to have become deputy to Gen. Creighton Abrams, the American commander in Vietnam. Unfortunately, the general succumbed to a serious back ailment, which also prevented his testifying before the committee.

These are the pro-consuls. They are the agents of American power in the far corners of the earth. They enjoy privileges and on-the-scene responsibilities unimaginable in the America of a short time ago.

Prosperity's Smile Gives Britain New Problems

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Britain's spectacular economic recovery has given Prime Minister Harold Wilson at least one rather pleasant problem and several pressing and less pleasant.

The country's balance of payments surplus began zooming upward last spring, continued through the summer and fall and is now running at an estimate rate of more than $2 billion a year, the highest in British history.

It gives Wilson happy thoughts that his Labor party's fortunes may also have turned the corner after two months of steady losses to the opposition Conservatives and that early elections might be in order to cash in on the gains.

Speculation centers around Oct. 1. Wilson is not required to hold elections until the spring of 1971.

UNPLEASANT problems also arise as result of Britain's new prosperity.

After years of austerity the British people want a share in it.

Facing the government with pay demands ranging up to 50 per cent for seamen are nurses, civil servants, dockers, automobile, chemical, rail and post office workers.

Altogether, they total some 2.5 million workers.

The government is relaxing its wage controls but it fears the new demands could touch off an inflationary spiral erasing all the gains. It is urging unions and management to hold annual increases within 2.5 and 4.5 per cent.

IT HAS HANDED out some goodies.

Britons no longer are restricted to an annual $120 limit on travel spending.

And the government is working to raise the wages of lower paid workers while maintaining a ceiling on others. The former would include the one British male worker in 12 who earns less than $36 per week before taxes. The British average is $60.

THE PROBLEM is several-fold. Devaluation of the pound, making British goods more competitive in foreign markets, accounted for much of the gain in the balance of payments. But British unions still are undisciplined and British industry is inefficient in many ways.

Any significant rise in the price of British goods could reverse today's pleasant trend. As the time for elections nears, both major British parties face another problem. That is the question mark posed by the lowering of Britain's voting age to 18. They and other first-time voters total six million, enough to swing an election. Neither party has yet determined which way they will go.

But for the moment, for Harold Wilson things are looking up. His chances for winning entry into the European Common Market are improving with the new strength of the pound and now he also hopes to win an election that only months ago seemed lost.

Nobody'd Buy Scenario About Rich Hippie Who Can't Buy Love

WASHINGTON — The story of Michael Brody, heir to an oleomargarine fortune in millions, thousands or hundreds depending on which newspaper you read on which day, sounds like it was written by two very hungry Hollywood writers.

They go in to see the head of the studio.

"J.B., we have this great idea for a movie. Tell him, Al."

"Well, J.B., it's about this 21-year-old kid who plays a guitar and has long hair and believes everyone should love each other. He inherits $25 million from his grandfather, who invented a butter substitute."

J.B. says, "Both of you get out of here!"

"Wait a minute, J.B. There's more to it than that. He walks down the street handing out thousands of dollars to anyone he likes. Pretty soon, there's an army of people trying to get to him for schemes they want finanaced."

J.B. looks at the two men. "Do you want me to call the studio police?"

"Please, J.B., let Sam tell you what we've got in mind. The guy can't go anywhere without people following him and screaming at him for some of the money. People sit outside his home, his apartment. They call him night and day. They tear his clothes; they break his guitar. He has to hire a bodyguard. The press won't let him alone.

"He holds a press conference and announces he has the solution to the Vietnamese war."

J.B. clenches his fist. "How the hell did you guys get into my office in the first place?"

"Sam, tell him what happens next."

"Then he demands to see President Nixon. He says he's got something very important to tell him. He goes down to the White House, but the guards won't let him in. So he says he'll meet with Brezhnev in the Kremlin instead. You take it, Al."

"While all this is going on, the guy is being dogged day and night by nuts. He's starting to flip. He screams at the people that they're all greedy, and he won't give them any money if they act like animals."

J.B. pressed the buzzer on his desk. The secretary came in. "Show these men out and if they come back again, call the nearest mental institution."

"J.B., this could be a great movie. Bigger than 'Easy Rider.' The guy gets so sore at the people that he hires a plane and flies to the Caribbean with a planeload of reporters. But he can't find any peace there, either. So he flies back to New York and decides to make a record about peace.'"

"Now, this is the part you're going to like, J.B. It's the finish to end all finishes. Tell him, Sam."

"The guy goes on the Ed Sullivan Show! Ed interviews him and then he sings a song.

"Can't you see it, J.B.? The whole country is watching him and he tells them that money isn't everything, and the most important thing is to have good vibrations."

J.B. gets up from his chair. "OUT!!! OUT!!!"

Both writers hold onto the desk as the studio police start pulling them.

Al yells, "Now for the switch at the end. The guy doesn't have $25 million — he only has a lousy $4 million so everyone gets sore at him, and he finally discovers that you can't buy love."

As they are being dragged down the hall, Sam cries "All right. If you think it's too far-fetched, we'll take out the part about him going on the Ed Sullivan show!"

Novato Student Leads In Oratory

Gregory Lee Griffin, Novato High School student, won district competition in the American legion high school oratorical contest Sunday, defeating entrants from Solano and Napa counties.

Griffin won the Marin competition Jan. 14, and next will go to the northern California competition Feb. 8 in Sacramento.

Griffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip G. Griffin of 160 Country Club Drive, was sponsored by Lloyd Andrews Hamilton Post 540 of Novato.

Petaluma Drama Students Will Give Two Plays

Two comedies, "In the Gloaming" and "Black Comedy," will be presented by Petaluma Senior High School drama students at 8 p.m. on Thursday, Friday and Saturday and Feb. 5, 6 and 7 in the drama room.

"In the Gloaming" involves two sinister old ladies trying to hide an old man in the nursing home where they live and will feature Karen Nickerson, Liz Wilson and Dennis Milliken.

Also in the cast are Anne Gunthrop, Ronald Thomas, Kathy Lewis, Nita Watson, Pat Carroll, Jill Silver and Toni Downward.

"Black Comedy" makes light of the New York power blackout. Light and darkness are reversed for the audience so the actors stumble in darkness when the lights are on.

Leads in the play are Bradley Stine, David Rintelman, Sharon Dosset and Sue Albertson. Others in the cast are Leslie Thiel, Carl Vast, Ronald Thomas, Cindy Carney, Jill Silver and Ann Perraul.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By THERON NEWELL

Hard To Take Your Own Picture When Trapped In Car By Flood

Have you ever sat in a car on a city street with flood water swirling around you?

It is a funny feeling, sitting there with the motor stalled and the water rising, coming in through the doors until the floor of the car is a small pond.

For many years I have covered stories and taken pictures of motorists in that plight. It finally had to happen to me on Center Road in Novato when Warner Creek overflowed its banks after a recent heavy rain.

Luckily a city truck came in and pulled my car to higher ground. The men dried out my motor and I was on my way.

Unfortunately, I couldn't take a picture of my own plight.

After the same rain, an employee of the Division of Water Resources, Department of the Interior, was measuring the flow of Novato Creek at Seventh Street. He had a truck with an arm that swung out over the creek. On the end of the cable was a torpedo-shaped weight about two feet long. Then a small waterwheel turned a cable similar to a speedometer. It in turn ran a gauge that told the rate of flow. With 4.5 feet of water in the creek, he estimated 750 to 800 cubic feet per second.

The creek had already dropped about six feet from its peak flow of the morning. By easy calculation, one can figure that 1,500 to 2,000 cubic feet per second went down the creek there. Add that to the flow of Warner Creek, Arroyo Avichi Creek and there was a lot of water going out into the Bay.

And was it ever dirty — and probably polluted too! It came from farms surrounding the city carrying excess manure, rotting debris thrown into the creek and just general dirt. We wonder what the regional Water Quality Control Board is going to do about the rains that are polluting the bay?

It's A Shame to see that water go to waste. There are still canyons around Novato, such as Bowman Canyon, which could hold a lot of the winter's surplus water. North Marin County does not store enough water in Stafford Lake for the area's needs and is dependent on the Russian River water. The water district estimates the current flow of Novato Creek could fill the Stafford Lake reservoir from bone dry to overflowing in four days.

There may be those that would say such ideas are foolishness, but to me they are good investments for future water needs of the area.

Sgt. Sunshine Gets 80 Days

I-J Special Report

MARTINEZ — Richard Burgess, former San Francisco police officer arrested a year ago for possession of marijuana, was sentenced yesterday to 90 days in Conta Costa County Jail and fined $625.

Burgess (Sergeant Sunshine) was arrested Jan. 25, 1969, on a tip from television personality Pat Michaels of Tiburon, who told police the former officer had smoked what he described as a marijuana cigarette during the course of a filmed interview.

Burgess was granted a 90-day stay to allow him to finish serving a previous sentence for smoking marijuana on the steps of the San Francisco Hall of Justice. He will begin serving the Contra Costa sentence April 27.

Burgess' wife Paulette was fined $250 and given 90 days probation on a misdemeanor charge arising from the same incident. Her probation will terminate when the fine is paid.

Superior Court Judge Martin E. Rothenberg sentenced the couple.

The Tiburon Planning Commission will continue discussion of the Buskirk-Noble plan for downtown development and hold a public hearing on creation of a cluster zoning ordinance at its meeting at 8 p.m. today in city hall.

Cinema Center West Has Office In Mill Valley

Cinema Center West, a motion picture information center for both professional and amateur film makers, has opened an office in Mill Valley.

The center, a subsidiary of Edison Film and Storybook of San Francisco, has information available on new films and techniques, president Robert W. Edison of Mill Valley announced.

Young persons have been urged to join the nonprofit organization, Edison said and a summer program is scheduled that will feature film experts including Dan Totheroh, Ernest Callenbach, editor of Film Quarterly, Vincent Price and members of the San Quentin film workshop.

Information may be obtained from secretary Doris Keast at the center, 159 Throckmorton Avenue.

Hawaii is our little corner of the world...
we'll give you a whole week there for just $68.80.

We call Hawaii "our little corner of the world" because United flies more people to Hawaii on more nonstops from more cities than any other airline.

In fact, during the last 23 years, we've carried over 2½ million people to the Islands. So we know the Hawaii only the Hawaiians know!

Nobody beats our prices to Hawaii, either. Round-trip air fare can be as low as $170.* And there's a complete Hawaiian Holiday tour for whatever you want to spend. Everything from a week at Waikiki for as little as $68.80 (IT-UAH-01) to an exclusive tour of all seven Islands! (IT-UTH)

You can even have "privacy in Paradise" in your own apartment...five sparkling days on Oahu beginning with a traditional lei greeting. And including your own rent-a-car, refrigerator stocked with fresh fruit and other breakfast foods—even maps for pre-planning your sightseeing tour. What's it all cost? As low as $172 for two people. (IT-HAC-01)

On the way to Hawaii you'll enjoy movies and stereo, and United's famous Royal Hawaiian Service (Hawaiian stewards, orchid decorations, even stewardesses in island dress).

Nobody matches United's service to Hawaii. So call United today or see your Travel Agent.

Tell him you want to discover United's little corner of the world.

Reorganized King School Endorsed

A plan to reorganize Marin Luther King School was endorsed last night by Sausalito School District Board, despite objections from one trustee that he needed more time to study the proposal.

Trustee James E. Muldoon, who registered the only 'no' vote, emphasized he was not opposed to the proposal.

The reorganization, presented to the board by King Principal Sidney F. Walton Jr. and 10 staff members from the school, would include an integrated curriculum and longer periods for teaching basic subjects.

Under the plan, pupils would study mathematics, social science, language arts and science for up to two hours a day, four days a week, then attend special interest classes such as art and music on the fifth day. One day a week, teachers from each grade would meet together to plan integrated classes.

Sandra Locasto, sixth grade mathematics teacher who explained some of the changes, said children need to be aware "they are not dealing with small compartments of knowledge" (subjects), but with fields which relate directly to one another.

She explained that under the new program teachers would plan coordinated studies on themes agreed upon in advance. For example, she said that if social science classes are studying Latin America, math classes could contain pertinent information such as the study of population figures, while a science class might deal with weather of the countries.

Walton drew fire from Muldoon when he prefaced specific requests to implement the program by reading a two-page statement attacking the actions of the white community.

He charged that "black people have attempted to improve the situation" at King, while "whites have traditionally held out against positive changes."

The principal accused the school district of trying to "implement a policy of 'nigger last hired and first fired'" and censured the "white power structure" in the Sausalito area for perpetuating poverty and racism.

Muldoon took exception to the statement and the two exchanged heated words until Chairman Nathaniel Johnson rapped for order.

Walton got in one parting shot by saying he would "make a public apology if anyone can prove that any one of these statements is a lie."

Trustee Martha Freebairn-Smith said Walton's statements saddened her, but most of the board refrained from detailed comments and devoted their attention to the proposal.

Trustee David E. Freedheim said he was pleased by the proposal and felt it might be a "means of rekindling" community interest in the school.

"Superintendent Phillip W. Schneider urged the board to take immediate action on the plan, saying he felt it represented "a positive direction."

Walton said that, despite hiring of three additional part-time aides and a minor expenditure of $500 for minor building changes, the plan would save the district between $1,473 and $3,276 due to more efficient utilization of staff.

Walton said that, although the program will run only during the coming semester, he felt it was a plan for future growth of the school. "When the white parents run out of excuses and send their children back to school, we will grow," he said.

"I'm saying to these parents: you were wrong, but we'll forgive you; come on home," he added and drew a mixture of laughs and taunts from the audience of 85 persons.

The Sausalito School District Board Also:

CLOSED SESSION — Met in closed session for 44 minutes to discuss complaints of one employee against another.

VOLUNTEERS — Designated volunteer workers for the district as employees so they can qualify for Workmen's Compensation coverage.

SALARIES — Revised per diem salary scales for district employees to take into account the holiday granted for Martin Luther King's birthday.

ATTENDANCE REQUESTS — Approved requests from the following parents to transfer their children out of the district: Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Mannell; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Quinn Millar.

BLACK EMPLOYEES — Agreed to recognize the Black Employees Association as an official district organization on the condition the organization submit lists of members and officers to the board.

REPORT CARDS — Approved nongraded report cards for Central School.

SCHOOL CLOSURE — Postponed until Feb. 9 discussion of a proposal to close Bayside and Central Schools.

VICE PRINCIPAL — On the recommendation of Supt. Schneider, agreed to designate James Tolliver, assistant to Walton, as vice principal of King School when he receives his administrative credential from the Marin County school district.

Fund Campaign To Be Reviewed

The feasibility of a professional fund raising campaign for future hospital expansion will be studied tonight by the Marin Hospital District board.

Meeting in the hospital's Coral Room at 7 p.m., the board also will receive a report from its personnel committee on a proposed pay increase to hospital employees. If an increase is approved, the board will then study recommendations to finance the pay raise by increasing charges for special services such as intensive care, operating room use, and the heart unit.

The agenda also calls for review of plans on remodeling the intensive care unit and the X-ray special procedures room, and authority to obtain bids on both projects for opening at February's meeting.

Tonight's meeting will be preceded by dinner in the hospital cafeteria at 6 o'clock.

Pledge To Lead Demonstrations

MANILA (AP) — The president of the University of the Philippines said today he personally will lead any future student demonstrations like the one Monday in which 100 demonstrators and riot police were injured outside the Congress building.

Salvador P. Lopez made the announcement to 2,000 students who gathered at his campus office building to protest what they called "the mass use of force by the police."

Philippine President Ferdinand E. Marcos charged in a statement that "infiltrators and agitators" ignited the clashes between the 20,000 demonstrators and 1,500 police. Bottles and stones also were hurled at Marcos and his wife when they emerged from the congressional building, but neither was hurt. Marcos had just made his state of the nation address.

Planners Act On Tidal Filling Plan

Marin County Planning Commissioners yesterday redrafted the proposed new ordinance to control filling and building on tidal waterways so that it would not apply to interior lowlands such as marshes in Olema.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors on Jan. 6 asked the planners to pin down the areas to be covered by the ordinance. This the planners did by specifying points on creeks and estuaries beyond which the ordinance would not apply. For example, on the Petaluma River, only the area downstream of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad trestle would be covered by the ordinance, and on Corte Madera Creek, only the area downstream of the Highway 101 Bridge would be covered.

BCDC RULES

Supervisors also suggested that the ordinance apply only to the ocean shoreline because the bay waters are already controlled by the Bay Conservation and Development Commission.

Planning commissioners, however, decided that the entire county should be covered since BCDC wants local regulations to supplement BCDC rules.

The redrafted ordinance was approved 6 to 1 by the planning commissioners, with Niels Schultz Jr. dissenting. Schultz said he is not satisfied with the requirement that a developer of shoreline areas must show some offsetting public benefit in exchange for his construction.

'PUBLIC BENEFIT'

The "public benefit" clause was eased somewhat in the redraft, but not enough to satisfy Schultz. Commissioner Hugh Dougherty added a clause that says a "public benefit" showing is not necessary if the proposed development is entirely above the elevation of 7.5 feet mean lower low water.

The ordinance would give control over filling, excavation or construction on tidelands below an elevation of 7.5 feet mean lower low water and to contiguous land within 100 feet inland from that elevation.

Any developer who wants to build or excavate within those areas must get a permit.

Any emergency work such as repair of broken dikes during floods would not come under the ordinance.

Guilty Plea Entered On Forgery Of Check

Peter E. Stuckslager, 33, of Santa Monica, pleaded guilty yesterday in Marin Superior Court to one charge of check forgery and three others were dismissed.

Judge E. Warren McGuire placed him on six months probation, ordered him to spend 15 days in jail and to make restitution. Stuckslager had been accused of forging checks belonging to a Sausalito woman at the Two Turtles Bar and Del Monte liquors in Sausalito.

20 Horses Approved For Santa Venetia

Up to 20 horses will be allowed to remain at a corral in Santa Venetia for at least one year, the Marin County Planning Commission decided unanimously yesterday.

The corral is on the 12-acre property of Herman Bosch at 257 North San Pedro Road, next to Gallinas School and the Venetia Oaks home for the elderly.

Attorney C. John Bernt, representing Bosch, and Arthur Wagner, caretaker of the property, assured commissioners that manure would be carted away by a garbage company, oil will be applied to prevent dust, and fences have been repaired to prevent runaway horses.

Approval came on a motion by Eugene R. Trombley and a second by Niels Schultz Jr. for a use permit subject to review after one year. The decision reversed Zoning Administrator Thomas E. Cordill's denial of a use permit last November when neighbors complained.

The Marin County Planning Commission Also:

SIGN — Approved by 4-2 vote an 18-square-foot illuminated, free-standing sign and a two-square-foot wall sign for James Dismuke's Fairfax French Laundry at 818 College Avenue in Kentfield. Dissenters Walter F. Freitas and Eugene R. Trombley said more square footage should be allowed. Niels Schultz Jr. abstained because he has a business relationship with the owner.

PRESERVE — Granted agricultural preserve status to Hurford Sharon and Jurgen Ruesch, who own 132 acres of farm land on the Bolinas Mesa at the corner of Mesa Road and Overlook Drive.

LAND DIVISION — Approved 6-1 a split of Ronald Grunt's property at 367 East Strawberry Drive into two lots of 19,262 square feet and 11,660 square feet. Lone dissenter Niels Schultz Jr. agreed with Stanley W. Taylor, who has developed several other lots in Strawberry, that minimum size lot for the area should be at least 13,000 square feet.

PREZONING POLICY — Set March 2 as the time for another discussion of the City-County Planning Council's proposal that the county require annexation to a city as a condition to annexation to a special district. The majority of the planning commissioners said they are opposed to forced annexation.

Court Silences Lawyers In Case

A preliminary hearing was set Friday for Feb. 24 in Marin Municipal Court for Carl Harold Nilsson, 61, of Bel Marin Keys, who is charged with grand theft stemming from the alleged bilking of a Tiburon man of $3,500.

Judge Hadden W. Roth issued an order that participants in the case not speak to the press after Nilsson's attorney said that a member of the district attorney's staff had given out false information to the Independent-Journal about Nilsson.

Contrary to the staff's report, Nilsson does not have a pending bad check charge in Reco, the attorney said.

He is accused in Marin of telling a Tiburon man that he would get him a $200,000 loan from a Philadelphia firm and then charging him $3,500 after he not only did not get the money but allegedly never spoke to the firm's officials.

Bolinas Inventor To Discuss His New Prefab House

Bolinas inventor Philo Farnsworth III will explain his recent work, a prefabricated round house that would sell for $5,000, and might help solve the nation's housing problem at the Marin Ecology Center meeting Thursday at 8:30 p.m. at Mill Valley City Hall.

Farnsworth's invention, not yet in production, could revolutionize the building industry, center spokesman William K. Carlson said.

There will be a discussion session on ecology action at the meeting at 7:30 p.m.

A nonpartisan political action group, sponsored by the center, will meet Monday at 7 p.m. at the Mill Valley Library. Information may be obtained from Carlson at 78½ Locust Avenue, Mill Valley.

Paintings On Exhibit

An exhibit of paintings by Novato artist Herta Rothschild is on display through February at the Marin Country Club of Ignacio from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesdays through Sunday.

BANK OF AMERICA RAISES THE RATES FOR SAVERS

Personal Choice savings plans now offer more for your money. One: you have many plans to choose from. And two: we've raised the interest rates.

Of course, we could mention a third: your savings enjoy the protection of the world's largest bank. So let your money go to work at Bank of America. The pay is good.

4½% Regular Savings.
Starting February 1st, your interest will be increased to 4½% computed daily and compounded quarterly. Deposits made by the tenth of each quarter earn interest from the first.

This is our most popular savings plan because it's so flexible. Your funds are immediately available. You can put money in. Take it out. Any time, any amount.

5% Investors Passbook.
This is the passbook account that pays you more for leaving your money with us for at least 90 days. The 5% interest is compounded quarterly. You can withdraw interest during the first ten days of any calendar quarter.

You can also withdraw principal at that time, providing it's been on deposit a full calendar quarter. A 90-day written notice will also release funds. $500 opens an account. Additional deposits are made in $100 amounts or more.

5¾% Certificates of Deposit.
We've lowered the entrance requirements and raised the rate from 5% on maturities of one year or longer. These Certificates are issued for $500 or more. Two-year Certificates now earn 5¾%.

Let us safeguard your money for one year, and we'll pay you 5½% quarterly. These new rates are effective immediately.

7½% Certificates of Deposit.
Large deposits—$100,000 or more—now earn 7½% if left with us a year. The interest rates on these Certificates range from 6¼% to 7½% depending on their maturity. These represent an increase of ¾% to 1¼% over previous rates.

Sound money management starts with a savings account at Bank of America. Come in and review our many Personal Choice savings plans. Your nearest branch will be happy to put you in the money.

Come to think of it, there are other ways to measure a bank besides interest. Like our 92 services to help you with the business of living. No other bank offers so much scope.

THE GYPSY dress was shown in Paris yesterday by couturier E d w a r d Molyneaux in his spring collection. The h e m l i n e goes to mid-calf with pleated skirt and the sleeves go bouffant. In the background is an afternoon dress in white organza embroidered with yellow flowers.

LOOK-ALIKE CLOTHES f o r men and women was the startling news from Paris designer Jacques Esterel for spring and summer. In what he calls the "synthesis" look the models show mid-calf tunics worn over printed blouses.

Paris Dresses For Men Are Giggle Of The Collections

By JOAN DEPPA

PARIS (UPI) — The Paris fashion collections for spring and summer opened yesterday with lots of long hemlines—even for men.

The real fashion news was being made by designer Philippe Venet, but the best giggle of the day was Jacques Esterel's dresses for men.

"Virility is in act, not in dress," Esterel said. But the audience wolf whistled when a male model with shoulder-length blonde hair walked down the runway in a purple, calf-length gown that left one shoulder bare.

Esterel, an avowed advocate of the unisex look, did a version of the same outfit for women and to most eyes, "hers" was more attractive than "his."

OVER AT Philippe Venet, there was no confusion of the sexes. Venet designs for ladies who are ready to lower their hemlines—and gives them a choice of two i m p o r t a n t lengths. Although everyone was talking about the midcalf skirts and coats, the dresses and coats that stopped just above the knee probably will be more important for the average woman.

The designer showed a whole line of above-the-knee coats in printed wool. Combinations like light and bright green on a cream-colored background gave a gay touch to the understated lines of Venet's collection.

Susan Opferman Becomes A Bride

Susan Lauren Opferman became the bride of Theodore William Cox Sunday in a ceremony at St. Isabella's Church in San Rafael. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. William H. Opferman of San Rafael.

The bridegroom's sister Terri Lynn Cox was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Mary Ellen Geopp and Sandra Marcelli. All are residents of San Rafael.

Kent Leach was best man, and guests were ushered to their seats by the bridegroom's brother, Dr. Robert L. Cox of San Francisco; and the bride's brothers, Roderic M. and William H. Opferman Jr., both of San Rafael.

A reception at the Marin Country Club followed the ceremony.

Susan was graduated from Terra Linda High School and attended Chico State College. She is employed at the Bank of Marin in San Rafael. Mrs. Umberto Giovacchini of San Francisco and Mrs. Christina Opferman of Daly City are the bride's grandmothers.

Theodore is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Cox of San Rafael. He is a graduate of Terra Linda High School and College of Marin and is in his junior year at Sonoma State College. Elizabeth Cox of San Rafael is also his sister, and his local grandparents are Mr and Mrs. Ercel Cox of Santa Rosa.

Following a wedding trip to Carmel the couple will live in Santa Rosa.

Venet, Molyneaux Offer Variation To Paris' New-Old Lowered Hemline

By LUCIE NOEL

PARIS (AP) — Philippe Venet unveiled a spring and summer collection today stressing softness and light in coats falling to just below the knee and little matching dresses staying two inches above it.

They come in clear pastels, pink, yellow, lime and mauve, often reversible.

Venet still likes three shapes from his last collection: the V-neck cardigan, the full swirling coat and the tightly fitted coat belted in back.

Gaudy printed scarves at the neck, loose vinyl belts with gold clasps and high pockets are the details.

Dresses run straight to the hipbone, then flare out in tiny accordion pleats. An occasional tunic and pants proves that women will still look for comfort.

Because the "little tailored suit" has been discredited by many couturiers, Venet transforms it into a white top joined to a skirt with matching jacket. He sometimes lengthens the skirt to below the knee.

For evening, pleats show up everywhere, on sleeves, hemlines, jackets, in the middle of skirts, or on harem pajama jumpsuits. Chiffon and shantung are printed in violent color contrasts, purple with green, red with orange, yellow and brown. Dresses, long and short, have jewel-incrusted belts or dog-collar necklines.

AT ANOTHER spring fashion presentation, Molyneux showed why the fashion has a reputation for understated elegance with a wardrobe of beautifully tailored, clean-cut clothes which enhance women in gay or neutral spring shades.

The look, tailoring and detailing are young, snappy and feminine.

Three beach costumes opened the collection, pants suits with halters in lemon, gray and beige of rustic linen weaves.

The beige beach costume is treated to a black and white dotted halter recalled in the little kerchief tucked into a pocket high up on the sleeve.

Some excellent spring coats step forth in subdued tweeds or bright colors.

For daytime, designer John Tullis says, "We would not dream of dictating one longer hemline to women. They must decide for themselves." So the balance of his daytime clothes stresses hemlines above or brushing the kneecaps.

EXCEPTION IS a stunning maxi-coat in printed black and white plastified vinyl. The pocket flaps and collar are all-white.

Quantities of little wool figure-skimmers with individual detailing as a white touch or a couple of tabs, or a trouser pocket with softly built-in construction, illustrate the designer's know-how.

Neutrals, and here and there a bright geranium red with a group of springtime "navy-touched-with-white," take care of "all day."

Soft flowing lines as in a flounced rose and white chiffon hits midcalf length and looks right for garden parties and summer events.

A Greek feeling runs through dinner and evening dresses. A suggestion of peasant folklore is done in bonbon fondant shades, rose and green and hung with chain necklaces and jeweled mosaic necklines and cuffs. As some full Gypsy dresses in printed organzas. A Greek muse in bonbon pink and three different brides, ranging from peasant to romantic add glamour.

A Woman To Direct S.F. Port

MIRIAM E. WOLFF

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - Mirlam E. W o l f f, first woman named to direct the Port of San Francisco, says one of her first projects will be to pave the way for women membership in the port's men-only World Trade Club.

Miss Wolff, 53, was named port director Friday by Mayor Joseph Alioto, who said she also is the first woman to head a major U.S. port.

Miss Wolff served 20 years as a state deputy attorney general—the first woman given that title—and was the port's chief counsel for the past year.

She will have offices in the Ferry Building, which houses the World Trade Club, and as port director is the club's official landlord.

But because she is a woman, she can't go in until after 5 p.m. Unless the rules are changed, the new port director can't take guests to lunch there.

"I thought for a long time there should be a change and so have many other women," Miss Wolff said in an interview Friday night. "We have the same background as men in the trade club.

"I've thought of sending in my own application. I j u s t might do that now."

Miss Wolff, who helped to draw up the club's charter 10 years ago, replaces Rae F. Watts as port director. He resigned effective May 1 after 10 years in the post.

Miss Wolff has been involved

For the Maid of Metal campaign, there has been developed an alumininum shirtdress with matching aluminum wig. Also: A flowing maxi coat outlined with woven aluminum, and a navy corduroy pants suit with copper collar, lapels and matching buttons.

Mrs. Lloyd P. Flatland Heads Museum Guild

Kentfield Guild of the Boyd Marin Museum of Science has e l e c t e d a five-year-member, Mrs. Lloyd P. Flatland of Kentfield, president.

MRS. L L O Y D FLATLAND

Mary F l a t l a n d has also served as corresponding secretary of the guild, which plans a tennis program during the summer and will participate in the annual Festival of Trees, put on by all of the museum guilds to raise funds that help give Marin a better and larger museum.

The new president and her husband, who is in the dental supply business, have five children: Martin, 14, Jeanne, 11, Stephen, 8, Sally, 6, and Robert, 4 years old. She is also a member of the Wolfe Grade School Parent-T e a c h e r Association. The Flatlands have lived in Marin 10 years.

Mary is a graduate of St. Rose Academy and City College of San Francisco. Her hobbies are bridge and swimming.

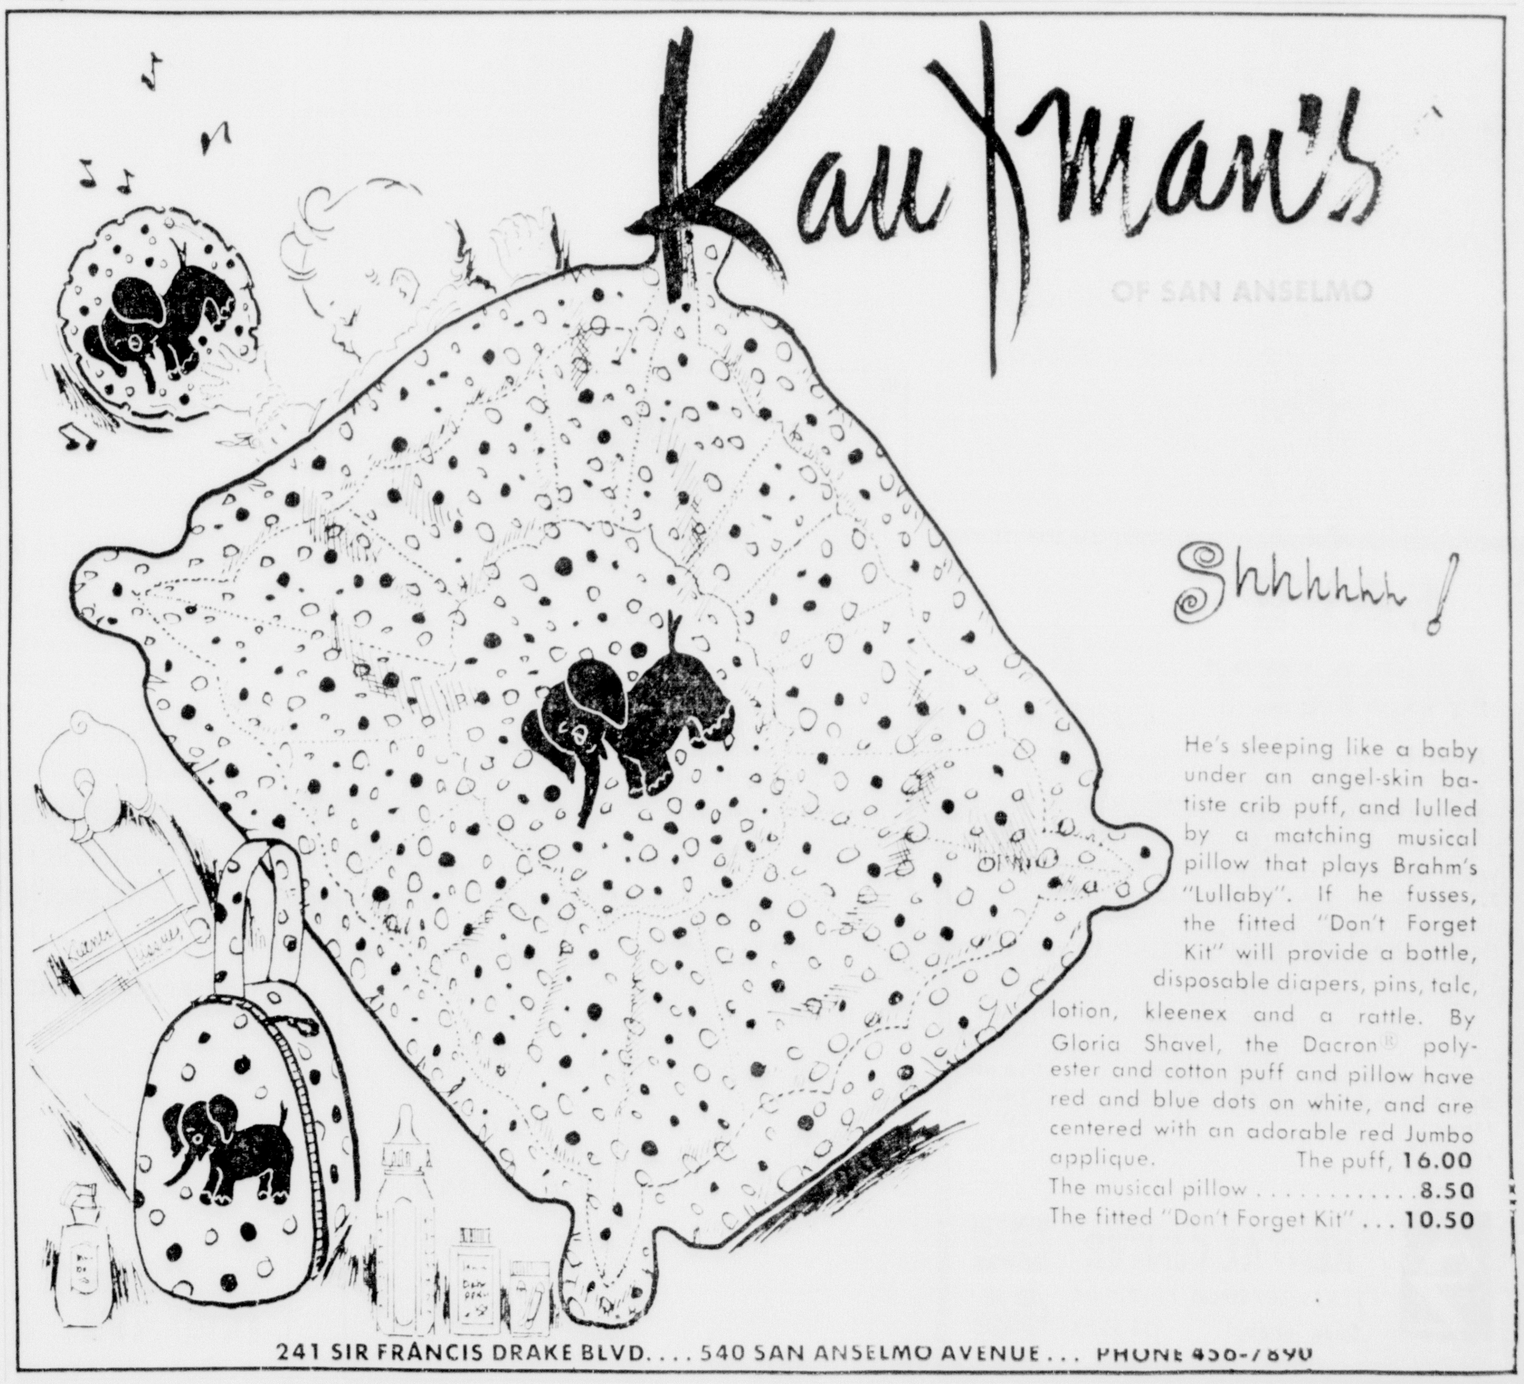

PRESS GUIDE IS AVAILABLE

A new guide for press chairmen o f organizations which are interested in getting news to the Marin Women's Section of the Independent-Journal is now available at the San Rafael main office and the Novato, Mill Valley and Southern Sonoma I-J offices.

The booklet, "Getting News Into Your Newspaper," is issued as a service of the Independent-Journal Women's Section to assist p r e s s chairmen for w o m e n ' s organizations.

The guide explains policies of coverage, how to prepare news stories and meeting notices, and the special stories and features emphasized by the section.

The booklets at the San Rafael office may be obtained from the switchboard on the main floor.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Landlords Of The Rings Won't Give Them Back To Real Owners

DEAR HELEN:

This is crazy but true.

Dean and I exchanged rings and everything was fine until we decided we'd better try dating other kids to see if we really cared.

In less than a month, this trampy girl was wearing my ring. I was furious, so to get even I let my latest boy friend wear Dean's ring.

Now guess what? The girl and the guy have started going together, and they still have our rings. Meanwhile Dean and I are making up.

Before this new girl and guy exchange our rings and make it even more complicated, how do I get them back to the real owners? It seems like people never return things anymore.—MIXED UP

DEAR M.U.

If you want a ring back, you must ask for it. Maybe these people don't understand that a ring exchange is only for the duration. TELL THEM.—H.

DEAR HELEN:

What would you do if you asked a guy to the girls' choice Valentines Day dance way back in December and he said Febrary was too far away, but he'd let you know. So you wait and wait and he still just says "Hi," when you meet him in the hall? I don't know whether I have a date or not, and I'm scared to remind him. Should I ask someone else?—DORIS

DEAR DORIS:

Fellows sometimes get off the hook by pretending it isn't there — which is rough on girls because they're left hanging.

Make sure (with a casual mention) that the boy hasn't forgotten the invitation. Then, if he reacts negatively ask someone else. And next time, invite someone you know better.—H.

DEAR HELEN:

When "Embarrassed" wrote about her fiance who, like his father, was a "300 horsepower guy" who figured everyone on the road was wrong except him—it really hit home. I had a boy friend like that, too, but I don't have him any more, thank goodness. I discovered the way he drove his car was the way he'd like to misuse everyone, but didn't have the nerve. He'd be a meek mouse to people he really should stand up to, then get behind the wheel and call every other driver all the names in the book, while driving like a maniac.

As he got to know me better, he started loosing his hate on me, too. So we broke up.—RELIEVED

DEAR HELEN:

If "king of the road" types would realize one thing, they might change their hateful attitude toward other drivers. They should be told that good manners put other people at ease, and part of their responsibility in driving a car is to make their passengers feel comfortable.

I'm reminded of my demon-driver neighbor who got his comeuppance from his young son. Mama, instead of Dad, took the boy to his swimming lesson that day. When they returned, Son reported, "Mom got me there as quick as you do. Maybe that was because all the damfools stayed home today."—FRED

Jeanne Webb Wed In Saturday Rite

Ronald Charles Dixon claimed Jeanne Marie Webb as his bride Saturday at a noon ceremony at St. Raphael's Church in San Rafael. A reception at the Elks Club in San Rafael followed the ceremony.

Jeanne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Webb of San Rafael, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Dixon of Vallejo.

Judith Ann Webb was her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Regina Consego of Seattle, Wash., Karen Yap of Honolulu, Hawaii, Lynette Lee of Pasadena and Susan Ehm of Watsonville.

John Husokowski of Hayward performed best man duties, and guests were ushered to their seats by Frank Seidl of Belmont, Philip Young of San Francisco, Brian Stelmach of San Diego and David Webb, the bride's brother.

Jeanne, who is in her senior year at College of the Holy Names in Oakland, is a graduate of Marin Catholic High School. Steven Webb is also her brother.

The bridegroom was graduated from St. Vincent Ferrer High School in Vallejo and will be graduated in June from San Francisco State College. He is employed by Standard Brands, Inc., in San Francisco. Patricia and Christine Dixon are his sisters, and he is the grandson of Mrs. Martha Looney of Palo Alto and Mrs. Elizabeth Dixon of Portola Valley.

Following a wedding trip to Yosemite the couple will live in Oakland.

Phone-In Informtion On Rubella Vaccine

A three-minute message on Rubella, or German Measles, and on the vaccine developed to prevent it is now available to Marin residents by calling ENterprise 1-5620, according to Ralph Giovanniello, chairman of the Marin March of Dimes Chapter.

The information service, called the "Stork Line," is part of an intensive public education program conducted on Rubella, and the need for vaccinating school children against the disease, by eight Bay Area Chapters of the National Foundation-March of Dimes, in conjunction with the California State Department of Public Health.

"Rubella is one of the milder childhood disease," said Dr. James Chin, head of the General Epidemiology Section, California State Department of Public Health, "but one which can cause congenital malformations in babies if contracted by an expectant mother during early pregnancy."

"Incidence of the disease is cyclical," Dr. Chin said, "peaking to epidemic proportions every seven to nine years."

"During the last Rubella epidemic of 1964-65, approximately 60,000 babies died or were born with birth defects in the United States. While the cost in human suffering of these 60,000 babies is incalculable, the cost of special education, medical care and other services to those 30,000 infants who survived birth is approximately eight billion dollars."

Vows Said In Pinole

Roger W. Bennetts claimed Carol A. Petersdorf as his bride Saturday afternoon in a ceremony at St. Joseph's Catholic Church at Pinole.

Roger is the son of longtime Mill Valley resident Dr. S. A. Bennetts and the late Mrs. Bennetts. Carol's parents are Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs. Carl H. Petersdorf of Richmond.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. David Arrington, and maid of honor and bridesmaid were Patricia Carroll and Linda Ray, all of Richmond. George Bennetts of Mill Valley served his brother as best man, and ushers were Timothy Burnham of Mill Valley and Bob Glass of San Rafael.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Hillside Club in Berkeley, and the couple left afterward for a wedding trip to Southern California. They will live in the Bay Area.

The bride was graduated from high school in Pueblo, Colo., and attended Contra Costa Junior College. She is employed with the Blue Chip Stamps Organization in Richmond.

A graduate of Tamalpais High School and San Francisco State College, Roger is employed with the Argonaut Insurance Company in San Francisco.

in issuance of general obligation bounds and revenue bonds for the port's growth, giving her "an over-all intimate knowledge of the port's problems," she says.

Shortly before her appointment, Miss Wolff had been planning to move to Washington, D.C., to become managing director of the Federal Maritime Commission. She had sold her car and shipped her law books and rented an apartment there.

Miss Wolff, who lives with her mother in Palo Alto, earned a law degree at Stanford University in 1940. She was born in Portland, Ore.

Her new salary will be $33,336 a year. She received $25,000 as chief counsel.

Heart Sunday Worker Needs

An appeal for 2,000 volunteers to call on neighbors during the "Heart Sunday" campaign — set for the weekend of Feb. 28 to March 1 by the Marin County Heart Association — was made today by Heart Sunday campaign chairmen Mrs. George Angus of Novato and Mrs. Ralph Bagley of Fairfax.

Volunteers will call on their neighbors to distribute literature and receive contributions to the 1970 Heart Fund.

Volunteers, who will visit eight to ten homes in their neighborhoods, may register at the Heart Fund headquarters, 1363 Lincoln Ave., San Rafael.

WHAT AN OFFER

Glancing over his shoulder as he walks down the street in Philadelphia with Carol Ciociola, Sherman Hillelson notices a sign announcing, "We arrange office affairs." Actually the sign is part of an advertisement for an office equipment and furniture supply house.

JUDITH JOHNSON

The engagement of Judith Mary Johnson to J. Dean Taylor of San Rafael has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson of Castro Valley.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Canyon High School and Weaver Airline School and is employed in San Francisco by Liberty Mutual.

Dean's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John F. Taylor of San Rafael. Chuck and Ken Taylor of San Rafael are his brothers. Now a senior at the University of California, where his fraternity is Delta Sigma Phi, John is a Terra Linda High School graduate.

A March 22 wedding at All Saints Church in Twain Harte has been planned.

Working on the guild's invitational party are Mmes. A. Barlow Ferguson, H. Reed Volin, Roger S. Sheridan, Robert L. Schultz, Charles Frost, John Hoefer and Angus Dunn Jr.

Reservations chairman is Mrs. Carroll W. Mc Colpin of 205 Country Club Drive in Novato.

Cocktails will be served at 7 p.m. to music by members of the symphony. Dinner and dancing will begin at 8 p.m.

Proceeds will benefit the Marin Symphony.

THE WOMEN'S Missionary Council of the Southern Marin Assembly of God Church in Mill Valley will have a rummage sale Friday and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The "Junk 'n Gems sale" will be held in Wesley Hall of the church located at East Blithedale and Sycamore Avenues, Mill Valley.

Rummage donations will be accepted and picked up by calling the Southern Marin Assembly of God Church office.

"MOM'S NIGHT Out", the annual dinner meeting for Marin Catholic Women's Club members and their guests will be held tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Joseph McNamee, chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. A.H. Nathe. Committee members are Mmes. Charles Chiapellone, dinner; Francis Fugate and Kay Noyes, decorations; Donald Rodriguez and Leo Shepherd, reservations; Stanley Laurence and James O'Donnell, tables; Raymond Denegri, salads; George Stempel, bread; Robert Urban, maintenance; and John Saia, social hour.

MARIN WOMEN who have joined the board of governors for the 1970 campaign of the State of Israel Bonds Women's Division are Mmes. Louis Abrams and Irwin Manne of Greenbrae and Richard Rosenberg and Irwin Taranto of San Rafael.

Mrs. Morris Thau and Mrs. Sidney, both of Kentfield, are Marin co-chairmen.

MRS. LEO M. Eads of Redwood City, chairman of Northern Area, California State Association of Parliamentarians, will preside at a meeting Saturday at the Napa Elks Lodge.

Registration is at 9:30 a.m. Speakers include Mrs. Kathryn A. Maloney, president of Alpha Zeta unit, "Parliamentary Law Bee"; Mrs. G. J. Sirex, area parliamentarian, "Pertinent Parliamentary Points"; and state parliamentarian, Mrs. Richard C. Ploeger, will preside at the Question Box.

Program chairman is Mrs. G. Frederick Norman of San Francisco, and Mrs. Howard Harris of Redwood City is reservations chairman.

SISTERHOOD OF Congregation Rodef Sholom will sponsor a progressive dinner Saturday starting with a cocktail hour, continuing on to a gourmet dinner and culminating with dessert and dancing at the temple in Santa Venetia.

Chairmen are Mmes. Kenneth Levy, Lawrence LeVine and Leon Fish. Hosting the progressive dinners are Messrs. and Mmes. THE MARIN Sonoma chapter of the Association of California Consumers will be organized at a public meeting at 8 p.m. Monday in Room 311 of the Marin County Civic Center.

All consumers in Marin County and Sonoma County are invited to attend and participate.

The association is a statewide, non-partisan, non-profit organization, established in 1960, serving consumer interests in California.

ACC president is Donald Vial of San Rafael. The organization's state headquarters are at 3030 Bridgeway in Sausalito. Mill Valley resident, Mrs. Sylvia Siegel, is executive director.

BEGINNING SQUARE dancers are invited to a hoedown Saturday evening at 8:30 p.m. at the Kenilworth Junior High School in Petaluma.

Callers for the dance, sponsored by the Northern California Callers Association, will be Sparky Sparks and Tom Walton.

Pretzel Or Pill?

If bars offered vitamin pills as well as peanuts and pretzels more steady drinkers would be healthier. Neurological symptoms suffered by many alcoholics, observes Dr. Pierre M. Dreyful, neurology chairman at the University of California in Davis, can be prevented or reversed by giving vitamins.

Mill Valley Rejects Annexation Proposal

A bid by the Sausalito School District to annex part of the Marin View subdivision was unanimously rejected last night by Mill Valley School District trustees.

The board voted 5-0 to deny the request on the grounds that many families had already purchased homes in Unit 1 of the subdivision under the impression their children would attend Mill Valley schools.

Sausalito had sought the annexation partly because it felt the entire subdivision — which is expected to have 900 homes when completed— should be in one school district. It is currently split in half by the district boundaries.

Sausalito trustees had reasoned that it was unfeasible to have neighboring children attending different schools just because the boundaries cut the subdivision in parts.

Annexation, had it been approved, was also intended to bolster Sausalito's sagging enrollment. The subdivision in question lies directly in back of the Tamalpais Valley School.

The question was the subject of a special public meeting Jan. 14 and the persons attending showed little enthusiasm for the idea. The board's action last night came with less than a minute's discussion.

Discussion of possible unionization of the Sausalito and Mill Valley school districts, also proposed Jan. 14, was touched on briefly last night and trustees decided to seek a joint meeting with the Sausalito board on the matter.

Trustees Vote To Continue Series On Sex Education

Mill Valley School District trustees last night voted to continue the district's sex education program and to allow teachers to use the sometimes controversial "Time of Your Life" television series in the program.

Parents retain the option of having their children excused from class during showing of the 15-part television series if they do not wish them to see it, the board decided.

The board's action in supporting both the general sex education program and the KQED-TV series came after it heard a report from a teacher's committee which supported both.

The board unanimously voted to continue the sex education program and voted 3-0 to allow showing of the series. Trustee John H. Cutler abstained because the law firm for which he works handles KQED legal matters and John G. Eliot Jr. abstained, saying he hadn't studied all of the material on the matter.

The district has had a sex education program since 1964, but stopped showing the "Time of Your Life" program in early 1969 after the series was heavily criticized in other sections of the Bay area.

Supt. James A. Collins said that the series would start being shown again in the district on Thursday and that his office would send a notice to all parents so that those who wanted their children excused could file requests.

The Mill Valley School District trustees also:

SPEECH THERAPIST — Approved hiring Margaret Odden as the district's speech therapist at an annual salary of $8,058.

RESIGNATION — Accepted the resignation, effective June 30, of Clint Thomey, head custodian for the district since 1961. He is retiring.

COMPENSATION — Approved workmen's compensation for any volunteer nonsalaried worker who is injured while working for the school district. There is no cost to the district for this benefit.

TRAFFIC — Held over until the next meeting action on a petition being circulated by Mrs. Kurt Levi asking the board to urge the Marin County Planning Commission to revise the master plan for the Marin View subdivision so that the major traffic route will bypass the Tamalpais Valley School on the east side, away from the normal route used by children now walking to the school.

Drainage In Tiburon Is Held 'Good'

Tiburon had damage over a wide area in the heavy rainstorm of Dec. 20, but it's "in pretty good shape," now regarding drainage, according to City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose.

He told the city council last night that downtown Tiburon Boulevard drains off faster now than it did several years ago when it would remain flooded for up to three days.

One of the problems was flooding in the Pine Terrace area, but interim measures such as ditching have been taken there, Rose reported.

Part of the roadway near 1661 Mar West was lost and the street has been closed to one lane, he said. Councilmen felt the one-lane near a blind curve was a safety hazard and suggested a warning signal be placed there, and school buses use other routes.

Rose said the city needed an improved early warning system for flooding. He pointed out that the city had provided residents with sandbags, and in some cases small sump pumps during storms.

Residents of Pine Terrace sought long term drainage improvements, and the council said funds for permanent measures could be in the 1970-71 budget.

Rose said to prevent silting and erosion, the city is going to require necessary soil retention methods where there are fill banks and cut banks.

Star Observers Will Discuss Color, Light

Basic understanding of color and light will be discussed by members of the Star Observers of Marin, an astronomy study group, at 8 p.m. Thursday at the San Rafael Recreation Center, Second and Brooks streets.

Weather permitting, the group will have a star observing session Feb. 6, time and place not yet set.

Drohan Decides To Step Down As Member Of Tiburon Council

Thomas E. Drohan, a member of the Tiburon City Council for four years, reported last night that he won't seek reelection in the April 14 municipal election.

Drohan explained after the meeting that he had served his term, and felt it was time to step down for a while.

He disclosed his intention during a one-hour discussion on rezoning of a large parcel along Tiburon Ridge when he commented, "as I'm going out of office in three months."

Other councilmen whose terms expire are Mayor Branwell D. Fanning and William R. Bremer.

After a lengthy discussion, the council approved James C. Reisinger's request for rezoning a 52-acre parcel east of Gilmartin Drive and north of Smithridge Estates, from single family with one dwelling unit per acre to planned residential. Maximum density will be 56 units, with a special provision for density up to 1.5 units per acre (78 units) if the design is "particularly excellent" and open space is dedicated.

The Tiburon City Council also:

UNDERGROUND UTILITIES — Adopted an ordinance that permits additional underground utility districts or extensions of existing districts.

SIGN ORDINANCE — Continued until 8 p.m. Feb. 9 a public hearing on proposed sign ordinance.

RESUBDIVISION — Approved resubdivision of four lots in Porto Marino Estates into six lots, as requested by Hans R. Meyer, representing Deak and Co., with the condition that a path be provided from Hacienda Drive to Geldert Drive for Del Mar School pupils.

HILARITA ZONING — Set 8 p.m. Feb. 9 for a public hearing on rezoning a 13-acre site at the Hilarita Housong project to planned development zone, a site under option to the Ecumenical Association for Housing which plans to develop moderate cost housing.

KAPPIE'S RESTAURANT — Set for 8 p.m. Feb. 9 a public hearing on plans for an addition to Kappie's restaurant, 38 Main Street.

MOSQUITO ABATEMENT — Reappointed Elmo DeMartini as the city's representative on the Marin County Mosquito Abatement District board to a term expiring Dec. 31, 1971.

HAZARDOUS BUILDING — Tabled for 60 days consideration of condemnation of the Tijerina building at 13-19 Main Street, ruled hazardous, after a report that a contractor had been hired to make repairs.

SCHOOL PATH — Referred to its public services committee a recommendation from the city parks and recreation commission to establish a pathway between Jefferson Drive and Reed Ranch Road for Bel Aire School pupils, estimated to cost $4,000.

GASOLINE STATION — Continued indefinitely a public hearing on a design plan for a service station at 1600 Tiburon Boulevard submitted by Mobil Oil Corp.

TIBURON LODGE — Set 8 p.m. Feb. 23 for a public hearing on a master plan for the Tiburon Lodge.

BUILDING — Received a report that 162 permits for residential building, including alterations, were granted last year, representing a value of $4.3 million, and 4 permits for commercial building, mostly alterations, with a value of $21,300.

VIOLATIONS — Urged the staff to push for correction of ordinance violations, including a sideyard sundeck, at the home of L. H. Stotter at 2244 Vistazo East.

BURNING BAN — Postponed action on a list of proposed measures for disposal of rubbish accumulated by residents as a result of the backyard burning ban, until after tomorrow night's discussion of the problem by the Marin Council of Mayors and Councilmen.

FERRY — Decided to lodge a protest against Tiburon-Alcatraz ferry service by Harbor Carriers when that matter comes before the state Public Utilities Commission Friday, the council feeling such service would create traffic and parking problems for Tiburon.

No Contest Plea To Attack On Girl

James Pate of Novato pleaded no contest yesterday to a charge of committing statutory rape of a young girl on March 22, 1969. A second count of the same offense was dismissed by Judge E. Warren McGuire of Marin Superior Court.

Sentencing was set for Feb. 24, and Judge McGuire declared the offense a misdemeanor.

Report On Bus Plan Available

Copies of Marin's "Optimum Bus System", a report which gives details on a modern bus transportation system proposed between Marin and San Francisco, are available from the U.S. Department of Commerce, at $3 per copy, Seymour Kashin Marin Transit District Manager, has announced.

Those who want copies should write to the U.S. Department of Commerce, National Bureau of Standards, Clearing House for Federal, Scientific and Technical Information, Springfield, Va., 22151, and ask for "Optimum Bus System," Number PB 188 538.

The report was prepared by the transit district.

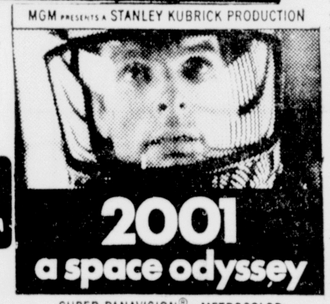

The "Feasibility Study of the San Francisco, Marin Ferry System," by Arthur D. Little Co. is also available from the Department of Commerce Clearing House. Its number is PB 188 546.

Cadillac 70
Own a Cadillac?
Of course you can!

1966 Four years old, but its classic beauty and tasteful elegance still give it a distinction that only Cadillac offers. And because it's endowed with Cadillac engineering and craftsmanship, plus so many desirable comfort and convenience features (you'll even enjoy variable-ratio power steering with a 1966 Cadillac) it's likely to offer more driving pleasure and owner satisfaction than most new cars in its price range.

1968 A previously owned 1968 Cadillac offers so much more than many new, fully equipped, medium-price cars. Of course there's Cadillac luxury, elegance, comfort and craftsmanship for you to enjoy. But you'll also be impressed with Cadillac's big 472 V-8 engine and the precision of its standard power steering and power braking. All this plus the pride of ownership a Cadillac provides.

GM
Cadillac Motor Car Division MARK OF EXCELLENCE
1970 Even the newest model of the world's finest luxury car—a car of uncompromising elegance, comfort and performance—competes in price and economy of operation with cars of far less stature. Thousands of loyal Cadillac owners will testify to this fact, and also to the fact that a Cadillac will traditionally return, on resale, a larger proportion of its original cost than any other car built in the land.

Fairfax Delays Youth Panel, Sets Hearing

Action on a proposed city youth commission and a city park use ordinance was deferred last night by the Fairfax City Council.

The council approved in principle a proposal presented by Judy Cummings, 16, of 165 Frustuck Avenue, as spokesman for a group of Fairfax young people who have been working for two months for the establishment of a youth commission.

The proposal will be further discussed at a special council meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at the Fairfax Women's Club.

Councilman Frank J. Egger suggested the establishment of a youth commission early last month. The council at that time directed interested youth to draw up proposals.

Following Miss Cummings presentation of the proposal last night, Mayor Francis J. O'Connell suggested another night be set aside for discussion of it.

Councilman Cornelis Van Vliet suggested "we should go home and turn the city over to the 16-year-olds." Applause from the 25 or 30 young people in the audience greeted Van Vliet's suggestion.

The Mayor said he was in favor of a youth commission but could not accept the present proposal.

Miss Cummings's father, William, told the council, "Two months ago you told the kids to go and bring back what they wanted. Here they are and now you say you don't like what they want.

"You're going to have a revolt on your hands," he said, "if you try to cram things down their throats."

Proposed regulations on the use of the city park were referred to the city administrator for study.

The regulations, drawn up by the city's park and recreation commission, call for strict limitation on sound of amplifiers after 9 p.m., set financial requirements for groups applying for use of the park, and forbid the use of the park for illegal activities and by groups such as those advocating the violent overthrow of the federal and state governments.

Louis Soldavini, chairman of the park and recreation commission, defended the proposed regulations, but after criticism from the council and the audience, the council referred the proposal to city Clerk-Administrator Frances Lestanguet for her review and directed her to report back at the council's next meeting.

The Fairfax City Council Also:

COMMITTEE — Appointed Gary Grace of 12 Vista Way the Fairfax representative on a citizens advisory committee to the Marin Housing Authority.

LIGHTS — Allocated $1,000 to finance Pacific Gas and Electric Co. conversion of incandescent street lights to mercury vapor. The funds will finance this year's work in the city's five-year master lighting program.

RESIGNATION — Accepted the resignation of Parks and Recreation Commissioner Conway Enscoe due to "pressing personal matters," and appointed Edwin McGee III, 16, of 111 Bothin Road, to the commission.

EXTENSION — Refused to grant an extension to Maggiora and Ghilotti, contractors for repair work on Forrest Avenue damaged last winter.

BICYCLES — Approved a city bicycle path route which will eventually be part of a countywide path. The path will be on Lansdale Avenue, Broadway and Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

SALARY — Defeated a proposal by Councilman Robert R. Souza to put two questions on the April ballot, an affirmative vote on either of which would have provided salaries for city councilmen.

PLANNING — Voted to support Marin County's application to the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development for urban planning assistance which will cover the second phase of the countywide planning program.

Deer Park Annexation Plea Rejected By 4-1 Decision

Annexation of Deer Park to Fairfax was rejected last night by the Fairfax City Council.

The rejection, by a 4-1 vote with Councilman Frank J. Egger dissenting, followed a lengthy hearing.

Proponents of annexation said the city would be able to provide better police and fire protection to Deer Park School, as well as to the park, and could guarantee the preservation of the park area for recreational use.

Councilman Adelaide P. Wilson spoke in favor of the proposal, saying that vandalism to the school property and the harassment of small children in the park required greater police surveillance.

She also said there were "a number of goings-on, that I've heard about over the years, that go on mainly because everyone knows there are no police over there." Mrs. Wilson nevertheless voted against annexation.

Leo T. Cronin of 12 San Gabriel Court called the area "a zone of lawlessness" and compared it to looking over the border at Tijuana, seeing what goes on, and not being able to do anything about it.

Councilman Robert R. Souza, opposed to the annexation, saying the city would be taking on an additional financial burden in providing police protection to the area.

Fairfax Police Chief James R. Orr said the annexation would put an extra burden on what he called an already too small police department. He said, however, that he favored the annexation and "if the council decides to annex the school, we'll police it as best we can."

Mayor Francis J. O'Connell wanted to know why the city should have to police the area when the taxpayers are now paying the county to do it.

Councilman Cornelis Van Vliet said there would be extra cost to the city in upgrading the water supply for better fire protection if the area was annexed.

Councilman Egger, who proposed the annexation, said it was only from the city line to the school grounds that the water lines were deficient.

Touring Soviet Editors Picketed

By HENRY SHAPIRO

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A group of Soviet journalists was picketed Monday night by 85 demonstrators who said they were protesting anti-Semitism in the Soviet Union.

The protesters, who handed out a pamphlet headlined "3 Million Jews Need Your Help," briefly padlocked the door of the San Francisco Press Club where the Russians attended a dinner.

The American Society of Newspaper Editors, which is sponsoring the tour, expressed its regrets to the Soviet delegation in an apologetic telegram from ASNE president Norman Isaacs.

The Russians met a leading American conservative when they talked earlier Monday with Gov. Ronald Reagan in Sacramento. The talk was businesslike but cordial.

Senator Quits Over Fund Drive

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, a charter member of the American Legion since World War I, says he has resigned to protest a plan to raise $200,000 for the defense of Lt. William L. Calley, accused of murder at My Lai.

The defense fund campaign was launched by six posts in Jacksonville, Fla.

Young said he had enjoyed past associations with the Legion but "in recent years I have reason to be disgusted with some acts and actions of a small group of so-called policy-makers at national headquarters."

Cab Driver Dies Of Bullet Wound

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Homicide detectives sought possible links today between the fatal shooting of a taxicab driver under circumstances similar to the last slaying claimed by the killer known as "Zodiac."

Charles Jarman, 28, died Monday night of a bullet wound in the head—almost identical to the one that killed another cabbie, Paul Stine, 29, last Oct. 11. Jarman was shot early Sunday.

The two shootings occurred less than 10 blocks apart, and both cabbies were working the Saturday night-Sunday morning shifts. Both were shot in the back of the head, and in each case the wallet of the victim was taken.

Alexander R. Imlay, Sausalito city councilman, has been named finance chairman of former supervisor Peter H. Behr's campaign for the state Senate. Imlay is a law partner of Behr.

Initiatives On Pollution Gain Names

A statewide drive to quality two air pollution control measures for the ballot yesterday picked up an additional 2,299 signatures on initiative petitions filed with the Marin County elections office.

The first measure, a constitutional amendment putting the cost of pollution on the sources instead of on taxpayers and consumers, needs 525,276 signatures. The second, a statute revision giving polluters five years to end pollution, needs 325,173.

Each had only about 160,000 valid signatures at the close of the first deadline to file petitions in December, and yesterday was the deadline to file supplementary petitions.

Counties have until Feb. 5 to file validated signatures with the secretary of state. In Marin, more than one third of the signatures collected in December were disqualified for failing to match voter records, with the number of valid signatures totaling 3,171 on the amendment and 3,365 on the statute.

The statewide campaign is being led by the People's Lobby, a Hollywood-based group.

Medical Lab Hit

A weekend burgler broke into the Marin Medical Laboratories, 711 D. St., and took $135 from a desk cash drawer, San Rafael police reported today.

Kentfield Board Shuns Decision On Tax Rate

Kentfield School District trustees last night declined to commit themselves as to whether the district will levy an override tax for additional costs of seventh and eighth grades or ask the voters for an increase in the general operating tax rate.

Stanley T. Smith, chairman of a citizen committee which had recommended using the override instead of calling a tax election, asked by letter what the board was doing about the recommendation. Chairman Lawrence E. Goldberg said it will be considered when preliminary budget figures are submitted.

The Kentfield district's general operating tax rate limit is $2.50 per $100 assessed valuation, which can be increased only by election. Its total tax rate for this year is $3.33, but payoff of a state loan will result in a 33-cent saving for next year, according to Supt. Anthony C. Bacich.

A 12 to 14-cent override could be levied for seventh-eighth grade costs without voter approval, Bacich noted. The Kentfield board has been hesitant to levy such overrides, however.

Concern was expressed over settling of a part of the Kent School multi-purpose room which was added in 1966. Bacich reported damage so far is estimated at only about $500, but further settling is feared. The board voted to call on architects Corlett and Spackmann for an investigation.

Preliminary reports on the ungraded program introduced this year at Wolfe Grade and Greenbrae schools indicated some gains in individual pupil advancement but problems with wider range of studies by children in the same age group.

Traffic hazards at the Sir Francis Drake-Wolfe Grade intersection and the Woodland-Kent-College avenues intersection were discussed without any conclusion being reached.

Trustee J. R. B. Ellis was absent.

Muscle Spasms

Sharon Witlock of 615 D Street, San Rafael, was treated at 2 p.m. yesterday at Kaiser Foundation Hospital, San Rafael, for muscle spasms suffered in an auto accident, according to hospital officials. No details of the accident were available.

Use Permit For Shopping Area Denied

The Novato Planning Commission last night denied an application for a use permit for a small shopping center on South Novato Boulevard and Diablo Avenue for Sutter Hill Development Co.

The company asked for a food market, drug store and restaurant on the 4.5 acre parcel. The planning commission felt that this was fragmenting the land too much and future development should wait on the completion of the city's downtown study, said senior planner Gary Holloway.

The Novato Planning Commission also:

OFFICE — Approved a use permit for E. D. McGillicuddy for the construction of an office and storage area on Ford Way west of Highway 101.

SERVICE STATION — Denied a request of Warde Watson Realty for a use permit for a service station on the north side of DeLong Avenue between Reichert and Scott avenues, pending completion of the downtown study.

BOYS CLUB — Took no action on the request of the Boys Club of America for a club on the north side of Lamont Avenue, west of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad tracks because the club has not definite plans for its clubhouse at the present time.

Ragan Will Seek Hub Post Again

San Anselmo Councilman Duane C. Ragan has announced he will run for reelection in the April 14 city election.

Ragan, a former San Anselmo mayor, said the city has seen many improvements in the last four years and many more are needed that will require "hard work and complete dedication to principle" by the council.

His goal, Ragan said, will be "to do the greatest good for the greatest number of people."

He named Charles R. Best Sr. as his campaign chairman and Dennis T. Moore as chairman of the campaign fund. Other campaign committee members will be Mrs. Best, Mrs. Moore, Charles H. Locati, Mrs. Richard Goheen, Hazel Erwin, and Laurence E. McDermott.

Ragan was elected to the council in 1966 after losing in the 1964 council election. He served on the planning commission from 1964 to 1966.

He was chosen mayor in 1968, and then served as "rump mayor" for several weeks last year when the council split 2-2 on whether to reelect him or choose Robert M. Scott new mayor. Ragan refused to vote and break the tie.

After three deadlocked meetings, the council elected Woodrow V. Capurro mayor.

Ragan, 58, was born in Columbus, Ohio. He is a retired Army master sergeant and a department sales manager at the Emporium in Northgate. He has lived in San Anselmo 15 years.

The first day for candidates to pick up filing papers will be Thursday, San Anselmo City Clerk Anita Gannon said today.

City Comparing Park Planners

Interviews with prospective city landscape architects will continue for at least another week, the Rohnert Park Recreation Commission said last night.

Chairman Ronald E. Rasmussen said the selection committee had already interviewed eight firms and will speak with two more before making field trips to inspect the past work of two or three top firms.

Rasmussen said the commission hopes to select a firm by the Feb. 9 meeting and to recommend employment to the city council. The firm selected will assist in master planning parks for the city.

Store Burglarized

A typewriter, electric razor and business records valued at $70 have been reported stolen from Hardy's Thrift Store, 26 Woodland Ave, according to owner, Arley D. Hardy, San Rafael police reported today.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, Jan. 27, the 27th day of 1970 with 338 to follow.

The moon is between its full phase and last quarter. The morning stars are Mercury and Jupiter. The evening stars are Venus, Mars and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1880 Thomas Edison was granted a patent for an electric incandescent lamp.

In 1943 the Eirhth Air Forces staged World War II's first all-American raid on Germany, making a daylight bombing raid on Wilhemshaven.

In 1964 Republican Sen. Margaret Chase Smith became the first woman to challenge for the presidential nomination of a major party. She lost.

In 1967 American astronauts Virgil Grissom, Edward White and Roger Chaffee died when their capsule caught fire during a test at Cape Kennedy.

A thought for the day: Thomas Alva Edison said, "There is no substitute for hard work."

150 Convicts Join In Search For Girl

ALBION (UPI)—Nearly 200 persons, including 150 convicts from two California Conservation Center prison camps, joined a concentrated search today for a 3-year-old girl who vanished from her home last Saturday.

The search by honor camp prisoners from the Chamberlain Creek and Pearlin Forks prison camps, firemen from Mendocino and Albion and sheriff's deputies was concentrated in the area near where Sanji Rosenberg lived.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Friend Milton Spreads Ruin With The Simplest Finesse

My friend Miserable Milton is a walking disaster area except when he sits down to play bridge. Then he spreads ruin on all sides when he takes the simplest finesse. He sometimes tries to avoid his fate by refusing to take a finesse, but then he runs into a hand like the one shown today.

FINESSE TRY

West led the ten of spades, and Milton tried the finesse. East won with the king of spades and returned his remaining spade to force out dummy's ace.

"Phooey on finesses!" Milton announced. (Even his jokes aren't any good.) And he led out the ace and king of clubs. West discarded a low heart on the king of clubs, and Milton clutched himself in the region of his wallet.

Milton cashed the other top club, and West discarded another low heart. Now declarer couldn't find a way to get a ninth trick. Down one.

PLAY IT SAFE

South can make his contract if he plays it safe. An opponent can be expected to hold four or five clubs to the jack on about one hand in every four. It isn't incredibly bad luck to run into a bad club break, and a sensible player should take out insurance.

The simplest play is to lead a low club from the dummy at the third trick. This duck guarantees four club tricks (or more) against any possible break. Even Miserable Milton would make his contract if he got four club tricks.

COMPLICATE PLAY

If South wants to complicate his play a trifle, he can win the third trick with the king of diamonds and lead the ten of clubs for a finesse. If West has four or five clubs headed by the jack, the finesse will succeed; in the actual hand, the finesse will lose, but then the rest of dummy's clubs will be good.

In a match-point tournament South must probably go for broke by playing the top clubs first. At rubber bridge or at any total-point contest South should either duck or finesse in clubs to make sure of his contract.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with 1-no-trump, and the next player passes.

S—K 6
H—K 9 8
D—J 10 6 3
C—J 8 6 5.

What do you say?

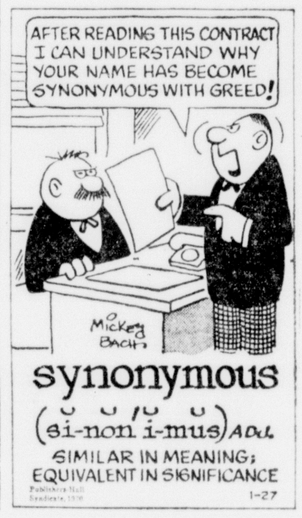

ANSWER: Bid 2-no trump.

This promises eight points or a poor nine points in high cards, and invites partner to go on to game if he has more than the minimum count for his opening bid.

Coin Machines Hit

A thief stole an undetermined amount of money from two washing and two cleaning machines Friday between 6 and 8 p.m. at the Betty Brite Launder-mat, 514 Third Street, San Rafael police reported yesterday. Ten machines were also damaged by the thieves, police said.

120—New Cars For Sale

Do You Want A BETTER Deal On The SAME New Car?

All new car dealers have the same models, styles, colors and optional equipment on their new cars. What is the difference between dealers on the same make of car?

THE ANSWER IS IN THE COST OF DOING BUSINESS IN ONE AREA AS AGAINST ANOTHER

Marin County new car dealers have a much lower cost of doing business than the dealers "over the bridge." This is why your new car will cost less in Marin County. WHY DON'T YOU CHECK AND SEE!

Safety Watchdogs List Fire-Risk TVs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Commission on Product Safety says 122 models of color television sets have been exploding or catching fire at an above-average rate.

The commission's decision Monday to identify the models brought an accusation from the Electronics Industries Association that the commission was creating an unfair competitive advantage for some manufacturers.

The commission said the nation's 22 million color sets have been catching fire at the rate of 12 per 100,000. It said the sets it identified were igniting at the rate of 30 per 100,000.

Olympic television sets manufactured by Lear Siegler Corp. averaged the highest rate in the industry, the commission said. It said nine of the firm's models were identified as potential hazards.

The other firms identified as exceeding the industry average were, in descending order: Packard Bell, Magnavox, Sylvania, Philco-Ford, and RCA.

Five firms were identified as having an incidence rate below the industry average, although some models caught fire at the 30-per-100,000 rate. The firms, in descending order, were: General Electric, Admiral, Motorola, Emerson, and Warwick (Sears).

The commission, which has been conferring with the industry for three months on the issue, sent letters asking the manufacturers to recall, repair or replace faulty sets.

Commission chairman Arnold B. Elkind said some sets on the list might not be fire hazards but he added the information should be furnished to the public "rather than risk the consequences of fires in color television receivers."

In attacking the commission's action, Jack Wyman, staff vice president of the electronics association, said the report "will result in unduly alarming the public about the relatively limited problem." He said the problem of fires is small compared with the number of sets in American homes. "Television sets are safe products," he said.

Here is a list of manufacturers and model numbers of television sets identified by the National Commisison on Product Safety as catching fire at an above average rate:

Guilty Plea To Drug Possession

Robert Lee Sisler, 21, of San Rafael, yesterday pleaded guilty in Marin Superior Court to a charge of burglarizing the Citadel nightclub in San Rafael Dec. 11.

Judge E. Warren McGuire set sentencing for Feb. 24.

A co-defendant in the case, Daniel John Johnston, 20, also of San Rafael, is being sought by authorities after he failed to appear in court.

Collision Injuries Marin Motorist

Theodore H. Barrett, 39, of 508 Laverne Avenue, Mill Valley, was treated yesterday at Marin General Hospital for a mild concussion and neck strain suffered when his car, southbound on Highway 101 near the Sausalito road undercrossing, struck the rear of another auto stopped in traffic, the California Highway Patrol said.

The other driver was Jan E. Bjorn-Hansen, 37, of 361 North Almenar Drive, Greenbrae.

Puerto Rico has been having trouble with dengue, an illness that few Americans have heard about. It is caused by a virus and is transmitted by the bite of the common mosquito (Aedes aegyptil). Although the disorder is not fatal, many of the victims are so sick they wish they could die. To date, 9,381 cases have been reported on this tropical island.

The disease is a super-flu that spreads like wildfire. At the outset, the temperature rises rapidly and may reach 105 degrees Fahrenheit by the

Adoption Seen By BCDC On New Waste Plan

I-J Special Report

OAKLAND — A request that the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission require shoreside facilities for discharging wastes from vessels is to be adopted by the San Francisco Bay Regional Water Quality Control Board in an all-day session beginning at 10 a.m. on Thursday in the Fremont City Government Building, 39700 Civic Center Drive, Fremont.

Installation of such expensive pumping facilities long has been opposed by mariners.

Also on the agenda are status reports on enforcing board requirements against Gilardi's resort in Sonoma County and against the Bolinas Community Public Utility District.

The meeting will be the first for the board under the state's tough new anti-water pollution law, which empowers it to seek a $6000-a-day fine against polluters.

Driver's Injuries Minor In Collision

Karen Frances Heaney, 18, of San Francisco, suffered rib pain in a two-car collision Saturday morning on southbound Highway 101, north of the Mission Street offramp in San Rafael.

California Highway Paatrol Officers said a car driven by Gerald Patrick Hook, 23, of Ukiah, collided with Miss Heaney's car at 10:45 a.m. Both were southbound. She told officers she would see her own doctor.

$53,463 From TB Seal Drive

Marin County's Christmas Seal contributions now total $56,463, according to the Marin Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association.

While this amount is an increase of $2,498 over the same period last year, less than a quarter of the 57,800 county residents who received seals have contributed, the association reported.

Marin's contributions will go to help fund research work aimed at combating emphysema and chronic bronchitis.

49ers Grab Lineman, Defensive Back In Draft

49ers Trade For Gossett

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco 49ers have acquired kicking specialist Bruce Gossett from the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for defensive back Kermit Alexander and a second-round draft choice.

Alexander, the 49ers' No. 1 draft selection in 1963 after starring at UCLA, started his seven-year National Football League career at free safety but was later switched to right cornerback. He was also used on San Francisco's punt and kickoff return teams.

FREE AGENT

Gossett, from Richmond, was signed by the Rams as a free agent in 1954. In six NFL seasons he scored 571 points, only two short of the Rams' record set during 1945-52 by Bob Waterfield.

In Gossett, the 49ers are getting the NFL's third leading scorer in 1959—102 points—and an accurate kicker — all 36 points after touchdown and 22 of 34 field goal attempts made.

Kicking was one area which hurt the 49ers, who finished last in the Coastal Division with a 4-8-2 record. Tommy Davis and Momcilo Gavric, sharing the booting job, hit 22 of 24 PAT tries but only six of 21 field goal attempts.

Gossett also holds the Rams' field goal record with 120 in 203 attempts and has an unbroken string of 165 conversions.

NEW MAN

With Gossett gone, the place-kicking duties will be left to second-year man David Ray from Alabama, acquired in a preseason trade with Cleveland. Ray was the booter for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League in 1968, hitting 11 of 18 field goal attempts including a 54-yarder to tie the CFL record.

Alexander showed himself to be a sticky-fingered defenseman, leading San Francisco in interceptions in six of seven season including 1969 when he nabbed five passes for 39 yards in returns. He also leads all-time 49er intercepters with 36 for 499 yards.

Lee Not Worried About Job

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Coach George Lee is unhappy with his San Francisco Warriors' performance, but so far as he knows he's not being fired because of it.

Before the Warriors lost to the Atlanta Hawks 131-104 at the Cow Palace Monday night, with a crowd of 10,612 looking on, a report circulated that Lee would be dismissed after the game.

'NEWS TO ME'

In the dressing room afterward Lee said the rumor was "news to me" and noted "I'm still here."

The Warriors have lost five of six games since center Nate Thurmond was sidelined with a knee injury that will keep him out for the rest of the National Basketball Association season.

Lee called the loss to Atlanta "the worst game the warriors played all season."

The coach said "all the players seem to think they are doing their job and somebody else is doing things wrong."

HOT HANDS

Atlanta's guard Lou Hudson, who made his first 10 field goal attempts, got 12 points in the first quarter as his team jumped off to a big lead and never was headed. Hudson finished with 30, high for the night, and his team mate, Joe Caldwell, came off the bench to score 29.

IT'S ALL OVER, JACK

Irish Jack O'Halloran begins final fall to the mat after being knocked out in the fifth round by George Foreman of Hayward. It came about last night in New York's Madison Square Garden, one minute and 10 seconds into the fifth round. Foreman, the Olympic heavyweight champ, won his 15th straight fight, 13 of them by knockouts. (AP Wirephoto)

Bradshaw Goes As No. One Pick

NEW YORK — The San Francisco 49ers, with two first-round picks in professional football's annual draft, didn't scare up a household name but grabbed a sleeper of a defensive end and a Little All American defensive back while Pittsburgh, as expected, made Louisiana Tech quarterback Terry Bradshaw the No. 1 pick on the list.

The 49ers, going ninth in the draft, took Cedrick Hardman, a 6-3, 240-pound defensive end from North Texas State, who became the first so-called "sleeper" to be named. They came back with the 17th pick acquired in a trade with Washington and grabbed Little All American Bruce Taylor of Boston University, a 6-1, 190-pound defensive back.

"He's got great speed," 49er coach Dick Nolan said of Hartman. "He can do 4.7 in the 40 and I don't know many backs who can run that fast. He was ranked sixth or seventh on the list and we were holding our breaths until we got him."

Hartman was a running back at one time but Nolan said "we probably won't use him there."

Nolan said that Taylor's selection had nothing to do with the fact that the 49ers traded away veteran defensive back Kermit Alexander to the Los Angeles Rams yesterday for kicker Bruce Gossett.

"We just went for the best men at the positions available to us," Nolan said. "Taylor could move into the starting backfield for us. He could help us right now."

39 TOUCHDOWNS

Bradshaw, 21, a 6-foot-3, 215-pound Little All-American, threw for 39 touchdowns and gained 6,589 yards passing with a 52.5 completion average in his career with the Shreveport school.

He led Louisiana Tech into two post-season games and caught the eyes of pro football's scouts with his outstanding play in the North-South game at Miami, Fla., and the Senior Bowl at Mobile, Ala. He was named the game's Most Valuable Player in the Senior Bowl.

Green Bay, which got the No. 2 pick from the Chicago Bears in a trade, selected Mike McCoy, the huge All-American defensive tackle from Notre Dame.

Cleveland, which got the No. 3 pick from Miami on a trade, selected All-American quarterback Mike Phipps of Purdue.

Each team was given 15 minutes to announce a choice but the first three selections were made in rapid fire fashion. All three had been expected to go fast.

Boston, picking fourth, named Phil Olsen, an All-American defensive end from Utah State.

Buffalo, picking fifth, named Al Cowlings, a 6-5, defensive tackle from Southern California, and a second team All-American.

Cincinnati, No. 7, plucked Mike Reid, All-American defensive tackle from Penn State's unbeaten team.

St. Louis, picking eighth, selected running back Larry Stegent of Texas A & M. He was the first running back picked.

Stegent, 21, was picked ahead of Steve Owens, Oklahoma's All-America running back and winner of the Heisman Trophy as the nation's outstanding college football player.

Owens was present at the draft session at the Belmont Plaza Hotel.

New Orleans, going 10th, selected Kenny Burroughs, 226-5, 215-pound wide receiver from Texas Southern.

Of the first 10 players picked, five were defensive linemen, and two were quarterbacks. Of the other three, one was a wide receiver, another a running back, and the third a tight end.

ANDERSON GOES

Denver, picking 11th, grabbed Bob Anderson, All-American running back from Colorado.

Atlanta, picking 12th, took linebacker John Small, 6-4, 230-pounder from The Citadel.

The New York Giants, No. 13, took Jim Files, 21, a 6-4, 215-pound middle linebacker from Oklahoma.

Houston, picking 14th, picked Little All American Doug Wilkerson, a 6-3, 240-pound guard from North Carolina Central.

San Diego, picking 15th, grabbed Richmond's All-American wide receiver, Walker Gillette, a 6-5, 200-pounder.

Green Bay, which had two first round picks and choosing 16th, took Little All-American, Rich McGeorge, a tight end from Elon College. McGeorge is 6-4 and 233 pounds.

Baltimore, picking 18th, chose Norm Bullich, a 6-foot, 216-pound running back from Texas Christian.

OWENS, FINALLY

Owens was finally picked by Detroit Lions, who had the 19th choice. The Sooners' hard-running back set national three-year records with 3,867 yards rushing and 56 touchdowns.

The New York Jets, picking next, took Florida defensive back, Steve Tannen, a 6-1, 200-pounder.

Thurmond Leaves The Door Open

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Basketball great Nate Thurmond says he's quitting the sport that pays him an estimated $100,000 a year, expressing disgust over the disabling injuries that have belted him out of one season after another.

Only three things could conceivably make him change his mind, he told a hospital news conference Monday: failure to make it financially outside basketball, the return of Rick Barry to the San Francisco Warrior lineup and a desperate plea to stay from Warrior owner, Franklin Mieuli.

'AS OF NOW'

"As of now," the 6-foot-11-center sadly said, "I am definitely retiring from basketball."

The 28-year-old owner of a 22.8 National Basketball Association scoring average landed in St. Mary's Hospital after a dive for a ball in a game with the Philadelphia 76'ers on Jan. 16.

For the second time in two years Thurmond's right knee was hurt severely enough to put him on an operating table with cartilage damage.

"It seems each time you work hard, trying to improve yourself you get struck down," said Nate. Something happens to take me out of the rest of the season."

From 1963, the year he joined the NBA, Thurmond has been laid low for as much as half a season at a time with a hurt groin, pulled muscles, ripped ligaments, a broken hand and a bad back.

Thurmond said off-season private practice on foul shots and other exercises have convinced him his ability and stamina have begun to decline.

"Every year guys are coming into the league bigger and faster and stronger than I am," the big star observed.

Thurmond said the fates have injured a part of him that does not show—his pride.

"It's not only the money involved," he said. "I have the pride to go out and work hard and do a good job each night ...every time it happens again, I get hurt."

Pride, he said, is involved in the qualification that might see him continue in the NBA—the return of superstar Rick Barry to the Warriors.

He said Barry's presence would reduce the time he was called on to play—and reduce the chances he would be hurt, said Thurmond:

"With Barry I wouldn't have to play as hard as I have had to. It would take a load off the whole team and success would be around the corner—more championships, more rewards at the end of the season."

SECOND FATHER

Aside from being called upon to play too long in games, Thurmond had nothing but good to say about the Warriors and Mieuli "who has been like a second father to me."

Mieuli said later he would take up Thurmond on an offer to return "if it is in his best interests and the Warriors' best interests.

"If it means he's going to work hard and get back in shape again, and have it (injuries) happen again, it means it's not to his best interests. And Nate's best interests are the Warriors' best interests."

Thurmond, who produced a giggle saying, "Nate likes to treat Nate well," declared he was determined his finances out side basketball would allow him to live "in a manner to which I have become accustomed."

Casper Very Forgiving To Caddie

NEW YORK (UPI)—Billy Casper was exactly where you'd figure he'd be—on the golf course.

He was doing exactly what you'd figure him to be doing—backing his caddie 100 per cent.

This was Monday afternoon, one day after he had been disqualified from playing the final round of the Bing rosby tournament at Pebble Beach, Calif., because his caddie had shown up a few minutes late.

Now here was Casper preparing to get in some practice licks at the Torrey Pines Country Club in San Diego, where he'll compete in the Andy Williams Open this weekend. Naturally, people still were asking what had happened to him at Pebble Beach Sunday. More specifically, they were asking what had happened to his caddie, Del Taylor?

UNRUFFLED

"Were you angry with him?" somebody asked Casper before he went out and whacked some practice shots.

"No," replied Billy Casper, in that soft, even, unflappable manner of his. "You see, in a situation like that, I was worried about his welfare more than anything else. I thought he might've been in an auto accident."

Casper had no chance for the $25,000 first prize in the Crosby, but had he gone out and shot a final round 70 he stood to pick up about $2,000.

What happened to Taylor was that he was the victim of a piece of misinformation.

WRONG TIME

"He called the lodge the night before," Casper said, "and they told him I was scheduled to go off at 8 a.m. They were wrong.

Ashe Wins Tennis Title; Palmer Golfer Of Decade

SYDNEY, Australia—Arthur Ashe of Richmond, Va., today won the Australian National men's singles championship, the first leg of a grand slam of world tennis—the Australian, French, Wimbledon and U.S. titles.

Ashe registered a 6-4, 9-7, 6-2 victory over Richard Crealy of Australia in an 84-minute duel at White City to become the first non-Australian to take out the title since Alex Olemdo won in 1959. The victory was worth $3,800 to Ashe and Crealy took in $2,240 for reaching the finals.

Margaret Court of Australia won the women's title by downing countrywoman Kerry Melville, 6-3, 6-1.

Golf

NEW YORK—Arnold Palmer began and ended the 1960s winning golf tournaments but it's what happened in between which helped him charge away with the Associated Press' Golfer of the Decade award yesterday.

Palmer collected 531½ votes of the available 633 votes from sports writers and broadcasters across the nation. Jack Nicklaus was runnerup with 75½ votes.

SAN DIEGO—Statistics indicate that former San Rafael golfer Ron Cerrudo, a third-year man now living in Napa, is ready to make a move. Cerrudo ranked fourth on the list for stroke average at 70.57, beaten only by Dave Hill, Frank Beard and Gary Player, on the PGA tour.

Baseball

SANTA CLARA—For the eighth straight year, the San Francisco Giants will take a break from their National League season to play an exhibition baseball game against the University of Santa Clara. This year's game, at Buck Shaw Stadium in Santa Clara, will be played May 21.

OAKLAND—Growing opposition to the proposed transfer of the Seattle Pilots to Dallas-Fort Worth or Milwaukee was reported as American League owners met today to decide what to do with the hotly-debated franchise.

Charles O. Finley, Oakland Athletics president and conference host said that "American League owners do not want to pull out of Seattle."

Football

CLEVELAND—The Cleveland Browns, looking for a top-flight quarterback, have traded away Paul Warfield, one of the top receivers in pro football, for an early draft choice in today's pro football draft.

The Browns swapped Warfield to the Miami Dolphins yesterday in exchange for Miami's top draft pick, which comes third on the list, opening the possibility of getting Purdue's Mike Phipps. The Browns set the stage for the trade by picking up wide receiver Homer Jones from the New York Giants in exchange for rookie running back Ron Johnson, defensive tackle Jim Kanicki and linebacker Wayne Meylan.

PHILADELPHIA—"You have to be realistic and take what comes along in life."

So spoke Fred Steinmark last night as he accepted the unique Most Courageous Athlete of the Year award presented annually by the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association.

Steinmark is the University of Texas defensive safety, who two days after the Longhorns defeated Arkansas, was discovered to have bone cancer and had to have his left leg removed at the hip joint.

Boxing

PHILADELPHIA — Cassius Clay, the deposed heavyweight champion, said yesterday he will personally hand over his championships belt to the winner of the Joe Frazier-Jimmy Ellis bout Feb. 16 in Madison Square Garden.

FISH AND GAME

By AL GIDDINGS

Now Is A Good Time To Hunt Those Coots

Recently, the federal government issued a crop depredation order authorizing the shooting of coots (mud hens) in 19 Central California counties.

The order went into effect Jan. 17 and will continue through May 17, unless the bureau finds the depredation emergency no longer exists and terminates the order.

Under the order, it is legal to shoot coots in the counties of Alameda, Butte, Colusa, Fresno, Glenn, Kern, Kings, Madera, Merced, Placer, Sacramento, San Joaquin, Santa Clara, Solano, Stanislaus, Sutter, Tulare, Yolo and Yuba.

There is no bag limit, only shotguns not larger than 10-gauge may be used and a hunting license is required—no duck stamp needed—and hunters are subject to state game laws and regulations.

San Luis Wasteway, Los Banos and Mendota will be open daily until further notice.

The Waldo Giacomini Ranch at Point Reyes Station also has a depredation permit, but the recent floods there have flooded the entire area, moving the birds out. In a week or so, it might be okay for hunting, but you should call Mr. Giacomini first for the latest conditions there.

Some areas of the Sacramento Valley are also flooded, so it will be best to check the areas for conditions before going. If you take any coots, place the bird under your foot, then pull the wings which will tear the breast free without the feathers. Soaking these in a salt water solution, then flouring and using a seasoning will present you with a tasty dish. Pulling the legs using the same method will provide you with the edible leg meat without the feathers.

THE FISHING OUTLOOK is somewhat bleak. Steelhead fishing at White House pool and Walker Creek in Marin County and the Russian River will be almost nil for a week, probably longer at the Russian. The parking lot and highway at White House Pool and the highway at Walker were under water at times last week. The Sacramento River is high and fast with logs and other debris making it dangerous for boats.

THE STRIPERS in San Pablo have been well scattered, so locating these fish could be a problem. A few diehard fishermen have been getting out in San Pablo. Dennis Scherau took a 105-pound sturgeon there last week. Some anglers have been fishing off the rocks near Elephant Rock at Tiburon. Mike Gardner, one of the locals from Belvedere, noticed the sturgeon jumping in the area where the herring are spawning off Tiburon, so using his fishing moxie, he started to fish the area. He landed a 62-pound sturgeon from shore.

I think that's a pretty good feat! If the fish keeps going, what do you do? It's not like being in a boat where you can pull the anchor and chase the fish. For the life of me, I can't understand why more anglers don't fish at Paradise Park near California City. The place has all the comforts of home with seats, safety rails, and it's a great place for family picnics. Using ghost shrimp or grass shrimp there, I'd almost bet the good anglers would hit the jackpot.

Did you know that the pier area is declared a public pier and therefore an angling license is not required?

THE STORMS have somewhat lowered the boom on the party boat results for December. The party boat logs which are required by the Department of Fish and Game showed that 375 bass and 66 sturgeon were landed by party boat anglers during December in the entire Bay Area. Rockfish landings reported in the Bay Area by party boats were 125. By comparison, at Malibu, Red Beach and Santa Monica, rockfish landings were 45,092 fish. No wonder everyone goes south for the winter.

ARE YOU looking for a good boat? The Department of Fish and Game is offering three, a 90-footer and two 63-footers for sale by sealed bid.

The Albacone formerly berthed at Sausalito is up for sale. It's 90 feet long, cruises at 12 knots, top speed 13 knots, has a range of 500 miles, is powered by two 695 horse power diesel engines, accommodates 10 persons and is equipped with radar, depth recorder and automatic direction finder.

The Bonito and the Marlin are wood-hulled 63-foot former aviation rescue boats with cruising speeds of 20 knots and top speeds of 30 knots. They are powered by two Hall Scott "Defender" engines, 630 horse power each. These boats have radar, radio telephone, direction finders and depth recorders.

The Marlin and Albacone can be inspected by appointment at Terminal Island. The Bonita is berthed at Sausalito and may be inspected by appointment. The boats will be sold by sealed bids to be opened by the Department of Fish and Game Jan. 30. If you buy the Bonita, no one will anchor near you because you will be pegged as undercover game wardens. What a deal!

BOWLING TIPS

By DON CARTER

Women, more than men, will carry the smooth layout, or relase, to an unprofitable end. That is, they become intent on laying the ball down on the alley so softly that it barely crawls down the alley and has little spin. Work on your tempo by counting in an active cadence "one and two and three and four" as you make your four-step delivery.

Lester Wins 10-Round Decision

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Jimmy Lester maintained his perfect record over Rocky Hernandez Monday night when he scored a unanimous 10-round decision over the Mexican middleweight at Civic Auditorium.

Lester, from San Francisco, stopped Hernandez in 1968 and two months ago they went to a draw—all in the same ring. Lester weighed 160 and Hernandez scaled 161.

There were no official knockdowns in the savagely fought bout. But Lester went down in the first round from a short right uppercut to the chin and referee Tony Bosnich did not start a count as Lester bounded up immediately.

Bosnich voted 7-1 for Lester, while judges Jack Downey and Rudy Ortega saw it 9-1 and 7-3 respectively. The UPI card had Lester in front 7-1.

The attendance was 4,380 and the gross gate $20,480.

With the victory, Lester will be able to fulfill a match here Feb. 23 already signed with Nate Collins.

Lester won his 40th bout. He has lost nine with two draws. It was Hernandez' 10th loss. He has won 33, with three draws.

49er Roland Lakes At Larkspur Event

Roland Lakes, defensive tackle of the San Francisco 49ers, will be special guest at a Father-Son Night Thursday at Henry C. Hall School in Larkspur.

Sixth, seventh and eighth grade boys and their fathers will have the chance to meet the 6-foot-4, 265-pound Lakes and also see football films provided by the 49ers. Moderator for the program will be Dave Scofield, public address announcer for the San Francisco team.

PREP NOTES

Redwood Ace Tops Water Polo Race

By GARY TISCHLER

Pat Ellington, the Terra Linda High School water polo ace who led Marin County Athletic League scorers all season, didn't quite make it to the individual scoring championship.

And it happened on a day he couldn't do anything about it.

Ted Dance of Redwood exploded for 13 goals in his last match, a 33-12 win over Novato, and that was just good enough to give him the league scoring crown with 63 goals over the loop season.

Ellington, who finished the season last Tuesday, had 62, leading the Trojans to the league crown on an 11-1 won-lost record.

Defending champion Redwood finished with a 10-2 mark, losing to Terra Linda twice. Tamalpais, which lost its first two matches of the season, finished with a rush and wound up with a 9-3 mark. Novato was 6-6, followed by San Rafael at 4-8, San Marin at 2-10 and Drake with a miserable 0-12 mark.

HENNESSEY THIRD

Third in the league scoring individual race was Brian Hennessey of Redwood at 37, followed by Lowry McFerrin of Tamalpais with 33.

Other top scorers in the league were Jim Praw, Novato, 33; Doug Brockbank, Redwood, 32; Rich Barclay, San Rafael, 30; Steve Sanders, Novato, 26; Todd Brown, San Marin, and Gary Schweitzer, San Rafael, 25; Steve Bator, Terra Linda and Brad Vaughn, Novato, 24; Randy Schulman, Novato, 23; Tad Geiger, Tamalpais, Tom Guthrie, Terra Linda; Doug Messimer, Drake, 22; and Steve Iverson, Drake, 21.

Terra Linda, incidentally, finished the regular season with a 13-3 record. Ellington scored a grand total of 83 goals.

THE REGULAR MEETING of the San Rafael Board of Education tonight at 7:30 might turn out to be more interesting than usual, athletically speaking. No wrestling match, it's just that a recommendation on athletic regulations, behavior, grooming, etc., for both Terra Linda and San Rafael high schools is expected to be unearthed before the board. It was hammered out by a committee of coaches, athletic directors, students and teachers formed in the wake over another hair crisis which came about as a direct result of the dismissal of a player from the Terra Linda soccer team last fall.

ANOTHER prep basketball all-star game is in the offing, sometime in late June or mid-July at the Oakland Coliseum Arena. It will feature Northern California's finest graduated seniors vs. the same contingent from Southern California.

The game has received approval from the National Collegiate Athletic Association and will be handled by managing director Paul Gaddini, who also handles the annual Tournament of Champions. Participants and coaches will be selected by a panel of top prep sportswriters in both the North and the South.

BASEBALL, ANYONE? — John Swett High School baseball coach Mal Decker is looking for a couple of teams to play in his Eastern Vacation tournament March 21, 23 and 25. All teams will play at least three games. Anyone interested contact Decker at the school in Crockett.

Pro Football Television Pacts Signed

NEW YORK (UPI) — The names of the leagues have changed but the channels remain the same.

The National Broadcasting Company (NBC) and the Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS) have signed four-year television contracts with the National Football League, it was announced Monday by Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

NEW SETUP

Under the new setup resulting from the merger of the National and American Leagues, NBC will televise American Conference games while CBS will air those contests played by National Conference foes. The American Conference includes the teams who formerly played in the American Football League as well as Baltimore, Cleveland and Pittsburgh, all transfers from the old NFL.

NBC had handled AFL games since 1965, while the NFL action had been carried over CBS since 1956.

The two networks will alternate annual coverage of the Super Bowl and All-Star game. NBC is scheduled to televise the championship game after the 1970 season.

HOME GAMES

When interconference games are played, NBC will cover all home contests of the National Conference. CBS will televise when the American Conference hosts their interleague rivals.

Both networks will pay the same price for rights to the Super Bowl and All-Star game but the budgets allotted for regular season games will vary. Rozelle refused to release monetary figures, although estimates of the four-year pacts with the three networks run as high as $130 million.

It was previously announced that the American Broadcasting Company (ABC) would televise NFL games on Monday nights during the next three years.

Marin Wrestling Mentor Stays In Top Condition

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Number one goal of College of Marin wrestling coach Jim McGowan is to stay in shape.

One look at the 6-foot-1, 190-pound McGowan tells you that he's keeping to his goal.

He runs, he lifts weights, he wrestles, he hikes, and makes the whole thing sound easy. He's a former member of the national Amateur Athletic Union championship wrestling team, and has run in the last 10 Dipsea races over Mount Tamalpais.

FAMILY RIVALRY

He'll be in the next Dipsea race, and you can bet he'll be giving it his all. There's someone he will really be trying to beat—his wife, Eilleen. She ran the Dipsea for the first time last year and beat her hubby, with aid of handicap.

Jim ran the 6.8-mile course in 65 minutes, scratch, and Eilleen did it in 72 minutes, but had a nine-minue handicap. Her net time of 63 minutes gave her a two-minute win.

"I'm sure going to try to beat her next time," McGowan grinned. They do a lot of their running and jogging together, averaging about five to eight miles, three days a week. It's still a little early for their two children, Erin, 7, and Kevin, 6, to join the jogging.

Although a native of San Francisco, McGowan was reared in Mill Valley where his father, James P. McGowan was chief of police for 24 years before retiring in 1960.

TAM ATHLETE

The son, James E., attended Tamalpais High School, lettering in football, track and swimming. After graduation from Tam in 1954, McGowan spent three years in the Marine Corps. McGowan, who started wrestling at 13, went on to become the All-Service 191-pound wrestling champion while in the Marines. He also took up judo in the Marines and became a first degree black belt. He's since moved up the scale to third degree black belt.

"It's always been in the family," McGowan says about his combative exploits. "My father was a prize fighter once and my uncle was a welterweight champion in the Navy."

JIM McGOWAN
Good Shape

After his Marine days, McGowan came back to Marin County and College of Marin, playing football and being named all-conference guard. He joined the Olympic Club in San Francisco and started AAU wrestling for the Olympic Club team. He went on to San Francisco State College, majoring in history. He obtained a B.A. degree in history and a master's in physical education.

While wrestling for the Olympic Club, Jim was a finalist in the nationals in both freestyle and Greco Roman wrestling four years.

His first teaching job was as a substitute in history and physical education at Tamalpais High, but his first full time position was at Tomales High where he taught history and coached football and wrestling.

He came over to College of Marin in 1963 and in addition to coaching, the Tars' wrestling team, teaches judo and cross country running.

LIFE GUARD

During summer months McGowan works for the Department of Beaches and Parks as a life guard at Stinson Beach. He stays in shape with some sand running with professional football players Reg Carolan (Kansas City) of Novato and Elmer Collett (49ers) of Mill Valley.

Among his hiking adventures, McGowan and his wife have covered the John Muir trail in the Sierra and have hiked in the Northwest section of British Columbia. Jim is now considering a fly-in trip to a border area of Alaska. According to his plans he'll be flown in by airplane and then will hike out.

There's no better way to see the country. That is, for a person who keeps in A-1 physical shape.

CASPER

I actually was scheduled off at 7...

"When I got up Sunday morning (at 5:30 a.m.) I checked at the parking lot and saw Del's car wasn't there. I surmised he already had gone

Taylor hadn't, though. He had awakened at 4:30 a.m. and taken his wife to 6 a.m. Mass, by then it was too late. Casper already was leaving the parking lot in his car. He spotted Taylor arriving and told him about the disqualification.

"He was sick about it," Casper said.

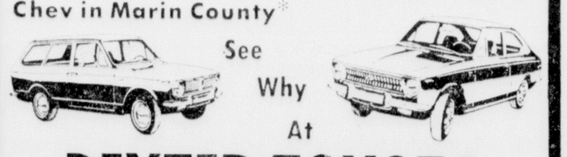

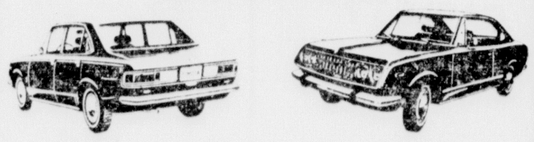

Billy Casper now is getting ready for the next tournament starting Thursday. The prize money is $150,000, making it one of the highest priced on the tour.

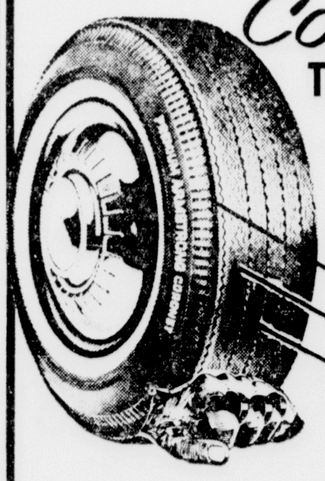

And who'll be Casper's caddie?

"Why Del Taylor, naturally," he said. "Not only will he caddie for me in this one but I hope for the next 10 or 12 years, which is about as long as I expect to keep playing."

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Population Control Is A Boon To Syntex Growth

By ROGER SPEAR

Q — We are in our 30s and would like to begin investing for future growth. Syntex has been recommended. Can you advise? — P.M.

A—A doubling of the world's population predicted within 25 years may be the deciding factor in bringing about universal acceptance of birth control. Syntex, a leading producer of steroid hormone drugs used in oral contraceptives, should be a beneficiary.

In fiscal 1968 these steroids accounted for 38 per cent of the company's sales. Competition and a leveling off in "pill" usage resulted in flat year-to-year comparisons in 1967 and 1968 sales and earnings. However, introduction of new products and diversification resulted in a 14 per cent gain in earnings for fiscal 1969, ended July. For the first quarter of 1970, earnings were 47 cents versus 46 cents.

A narrowing of profit margins reflected start-up outlays for two new subsidiaries and a 15 per cent annual expansion in the domestic sales force. FDA approval of Syntex's how-dosage estrogen-free "mini-pill" and the company's growing position in the veterinary field should contribute to earnings in the '70s. Looking beyond near-term fluctuations, Syntex, selling at approximately 24x estimated earnings of $2.65 a share for fiscal 1970, has long-term speculative appeal.

Q—After reading in your column that shares of Sears Allstate Enterprise Stock Fund would be sold through Allstate Insurance agents after Jan. 1, 1970, I called Sears and found that this fund was not available locally. Can you tell me where I can purchase these shares? — B.L. and M.O.

A — According to my original source, shares of Allstate Enterprise Stock Fund were to be sold publicly after Jan. 1, 1970, through Allstate agents. However, a follow-up investigation, sparked by letters from column readers, revealed that Sears had encountered a delay in the mechanics involved in marketing this fund. This holdup is only temporary and shares should be available within the next three months. While Allstate is not selling the fund shares as yet, agents can help you keep abreast of their progress.

New President For Seeder Firm

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Raymond W. Ickes, former president and director of Pacific Far East Line and of American President Lines, has been named president and a director of Aerial Application Corp.

The announcement was made by board chairman Stuart M. Speiser of New York, who said the company will have its principal offices in San Francisco.

Aerial Application, the country's largest agricultural aviation company, does seeding, fertilizing, insect and weed control.

Homestead Financial Corp.'s Earnings Up

Homestead Financial Corp. has announced record earnings of $474,634 or 99 cents per share for the year ended Dec. 31, 1969. This compares with $265,229 or 56 cents per share for the year 1968.

Homestead Financial, which had its first public offering in December, is the holding company for Homestead Savings and Loan Association, which has five offices in the San Francisco Bay Area, including Sausalito.

Costello To Retire From Macy's

William R. Costello, manager of Macy's San Rafael department store from 1952 to 1968, will retire April 1.

A resident of Larkspur for most of his life, Costello started his career with the firm in San Francisco as a stock boy in 1926 when it was O'Connor Moffatt Co. The company was sold to Macy's while he was serving in the Navy and upon his discharge he returned to work under the new management.

Before coming to San Rafael to manage the Albert's Department Store which had been purchased by Macy's he was a buyer, an executive in supply, store superintendent and in the adjustment and correspondence departments.

He was transferred from San Rafael to manage Macy's new Serramonte store in Daly City in the spring of 1968. He was made a vice president in 1969.

A European Mutual Fund Pact Reached

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI) — Investors Diversified Services Inc. has announced an agreement in principle with five European banks to create an international organization for distribution of mutual funds.

The agreement provides for establishment of an international holding company, IDS International, with headquarters in Luxembourg. The new company will hold stock in various operating subsidiaries that will market mutual funds except in the United States, Canada and Japan.

Similarity In Names Of Two Tax Service Firms In Marin

A similarity in names of two different tax service firms has resulted in considerable confusion in the concurrent opening of several new Marin County offices.

BENEVEST, recently formed subsidiary of BENEFICIAL FINANCE CO., has opened offices at 1104 Grant Avenue, Novato, and 875 Fourth Street, San Rafael. On Jan. 14, this writer also mistakenly credited the firm with another at 316 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley.

The latter now turns out to be a franchised office of BENEFICIAL TAX SERVICES, INC., owned by BENEFICIAL STANDARD CORP. of Los Angeles. This and three others at 1201 Second Street, San Rafael; 1129 Grant Avenue, Novato and in the Disco department store, Larkspur, opened last Saturday. Planned is still another Marin office in some large store at Northgate.

Franchise holders for Beneficial Tax Service in Marin County are JAMES R. BLAIR of Greenbrae and PETER G. THELEN of Marinwood, who recently sold out their San Francisco restaurant business known as Salty's.

They are now featuring for their opening a free booklet, "How to Get a Refund on Your Income Tax," which may be obtained from the San Rafael office.

SPEAKING OF TAX SERVICES, Bay Area retail stores of MONTGOMERY WARD will offer federal and state income tax preparation service this year.

RUDY'S BODY SHOP at 31 Bay Street, San Rafael has acquired the dealership for snowmobiles manufactured by Massey-Ferguson, Inc. RUDY JUNGBERG now has five of them in stock, in three different models.

When the snows have thawed and snowmobiles are grounded, he plans on stocking Massey-Ferguson's line of small tractors and garden equipment.

TWO MARIN COUNTY antique stores will be among the exhibitors at the 1970 Antique Show and Sale at the Berkeley City Club, 2315 Durant Avenue, Berkeley Thursday through Sunday. Hours will be from noon to 9:30 p.m. (Sunday from noon to 5 p.m.). Admission is $1.25. The local exhibitors are GOTHIC HOUSE of Ross and TRIFLES AND TREASURES, San Anselmo.

LAND INVESTORS RESEARCH, Larkspur, has added two new staff members - one from the East Coast and the other from Southern California.

PAUL S. MCNAMARA, now living on the Tiburon peninsula and house counsel for the firm, previously worked as a tax law specialist with the Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D.C.

HARRY CHAN JR., staff investment consultant and now living in San Rafael, was a stockbroker with Hornblower and Weeks, Los Angeles.

NEW PANEL of officers and directors elected by the Golden Gate chapter of the Society of Real Estate Appraisers, San Francisco is well represented by Marinites — from the top down.

President RAYMOND A. COOK of the STATE SAVINGS AND LOAN COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE is a Kentfield resident. Secretary TIM SHEEHAN, with SAN FRANCISCO FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, lives in San Rafael. MARVIN S. THOMPSON, with the same firm lives in Novato and is a director. VICTOR C. BANKS of Tiburon, who has his office in San Rafael, is another director.

AWARDS: JOSEPH RHYNE of Terra Linda, San Francisco district manager of BIGELOW-SANFORD, INC., carpet manufacturer, has received the company's special award for excellence . . . . PAUL B. LUCAS, manager of the San Rafael Redwood Empire agency of CALIFORNIA WESTERN STATES LIFE INSURANCE CO., has been given the company's 100 Club award. . . . E.W. KYLE of San Anselmo has received a special award from SHELL OIL CO. and membership in the company's Society of the Golden West for outstanding performance.

Still Lower Wandering Wall Street

Analysts said they detected a drying up of buying as investors sat on the sidelines, waiting out the decline and awaiting President Nixon's budget message Monday.

1969 was a year of continued progress and growth for our Bank. Total resources increased 18%, and have more than doubled in the last 4 years.

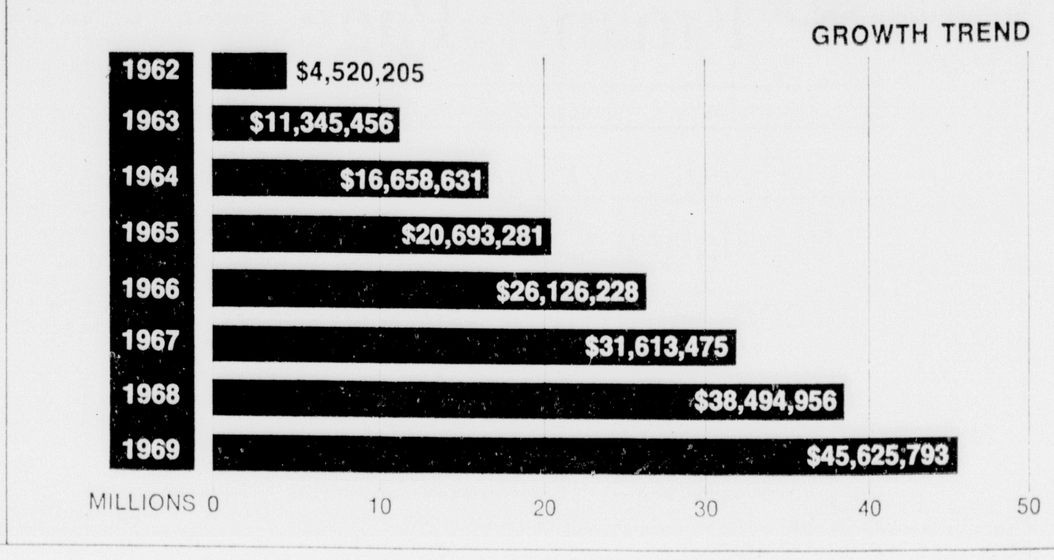

Our expansion program included such diverse items as the formal opening of our Trust Department and the building of an additional floor at our head office at 5th and B Street, San Rafael.

In April, we opened our 4th office in the Northgate Industrial Park. In August we expanded into the East San Rafael area with our 5th office, Francisco-Medway at 65 Medway Rd.

As an independently owned bank we have always tried to bring modern banking services on a personal level to our many North Bay customers. We thank our many loyal customers for our 1969 growth story.
